Ruby's Last Wish: Final Lie Test to Prove No Conspiracy

By BERNARD GAVZER

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Jack Ruby in his dying days still insists there was no conspiracy involved in his killing of Lee Harvey Oswald, named by the Warren Commission as the assassin of President John F. Kennedy.

Ruby, fully aware he is dying of cancer, wants to take any scientific test to prove his story there was no conspiracy.

"Jack has told me a dozen times or more he prays to be given a final lie detector test so people will be convinced that there was no plan on his part, or conspiracy of any kind, to kill Oswald," said Ruby's brother, Earl, a Detroit businessman.

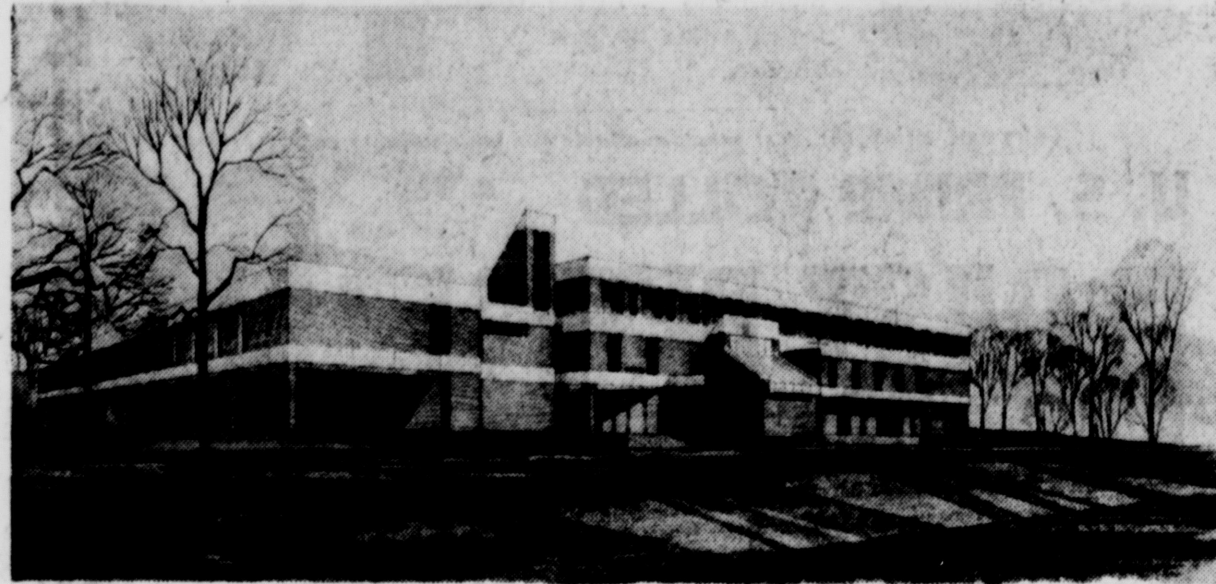

"It is his last wish," Earl Ruby and Elmer Gertz, Chicago lawyer and member of the legal team which on Oct. 5 won a reversal from the death sentence for Ruby, described Ruby's plea to do anything to erase any doubt that he acted alone in shooting Oswald.

They had seen Ruby an hour earlier in Parkland Memorial Hospital where Ruby, under guard, is undergoing treatment. This is the same hospital where the mortally wounded President and Oswald were taken.

Gertz and Earl Ruby were asked whether Jack Ruby has any regrets about killing Oswald and thus making impossible a trial, perpetuating for all time the feeling that the full story of the assassination will never be known.

"He has regrets, but they are not so much about Oswald," said Gertz. "These are regrets about the havoc caused to his people."

Ruby, a Jew, is known to feel that his action reflected poorly upon the Jewish people. "Jack reads the newspapers and magazines and watches television and is aware of the controversy about the Warren report and all the books and articles which are constructing incredible stories of a conspiracy in which he is claimed to have had a part," said Gertz.

HOW COLEMAN SCHOOL WILL LOOK — This is architect's sketch of the new John A. Coleman Catholic High School to be constructed on Hurley Avenue. The Freeman learned Friday that the contract for construction of the $3,000,000 school had been awarded to the Warwick Construction Co., of Warwick, Architects for the building are Paver and Wildfoerster of Middletown. The $3,000,000 school three-story structure will provide 16 class rooms, science laboratories, a library, gymnasium, cafeteria, team-teaching room, a student chapel, health, guidance and administrative offices. In addition, a third story convent will house the Sisters of St. Ursula who will administer the school. Ground-breaking ceremonies will be announced.

Urge UN Chief Take Whatever Steps Needed

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The United States today asked U.N. Secretary-General U Thant to take whatever steps were necessary to arrange a cease-fire in Vietnam.

Vows U.S. Cooperation
The request was handed to the secretary-general by U.S. Ambassador Arthur J. Goldberg during a 20-minute private meeting.

Stresses LBJ Desire
The U.S. request was contained in a letter which stressed the desire of President Johnson for an end of the Vietnam conflict, and the U.S. hope that the secretary-general might be able to take a useful initiative.

Goldberg pledged full U.S. cooperation in any cease-fire efforts.

Cites Geneva Basis
"Our objective remains the end of all the fighting, of all the hostilities and of all violence in Vietnam — and an honorable and lasting settlement here, for which, as we have repeatedly said, the Geneva agreements of 1954 and 1962 would be a satisfactory basis."

Close Study Assured
A U.N. spokesman said Thant "will have this document under close study." In response to a question as to whether the secretary-general was not already seeking a cease-fire, the spokesman replied: "Yes, he has been trying to get a cease-fire and to bring about a solution on the basis of his three-point proposal."

This included an immediate cessation of the bombing of North Vietnam, a gradual deceleration of military actions by both sides and participation of all parties, including the Viet Cong, in peace negotiations.

First Since Last Week
It was the first air strike against Hanoi since heavy strikes in the area last Tuesday and Wednesday. The U.S. Command said foul weather had forced U.S. air raiders to concentrate on North Vietnam's southern panhandle.

Sight MIG Jets
The pilots reported sighting Communist MIG jets in the area of the dump, but preliminary reports disclosed no exchange of fire.

The raids last week set off a series of Communist charges that homes were bombed in Hanoi.

Liuni Rules Out Celebration Yet; Nothing Settled
"It looks encouraging, but I'm not starting to celebrate. Nothing is settled really," said Michael T. Liuni after an apparent breakthrough in his battle to keep a foster child.

Liuni and his wife, who live in Tillson, will have an opportunity in family court to seek adoption of Beth, the foster daughter they have raised since birth.

Has Jurisdiction
It was announced Friday that Judge Robert Waldron Herzberg, assigned by the appellate division to sit as a supreme court justice in the case, was redesignated, at his request, to set as a family court judge instead. This will give him jurisdiction to approve an adoption.

$1,865,208 Over 1966 Operations
A public hearing on Ulster County's $12,337,377.82 budget for 1967 will be held tonight at 7 o'clock at the County Office Building. At that time the budget will be heard. Following the public hearing the Board of Supervisors will meet for the purpose of adopting a budget and transacting other business.

$596,164 More in Levies
While gross budget for all appropriations for 1967 is $1,865,208.71 higher than the current budget, the amount to be raised by direct real estate tax levy is $596,164.03 more than in 1966.

Estimated revenues, including inter-fund items, for 1967 are $6,445,927.31, an increase of well over $1,000,000 over the 1966 estimated revenues of $5,326,872.63. In addition General Fund surplus credited to the 1967 budget is $550,000, while in 1966 it was $400,000.

The total amount to be raised by real estate tax levy for the 1967 budget, according to the tentative budget, is $5,341,450.51. In 1966 the amount to be raised by real estate tax levy was $4,745,296.48, or $596,154.03 less than the amount to be raised under the 1967 tentative budget.

The cost of administering the county government through the Board of Supervisors will be increased from $74,920 in 1966 to $104,930 if the proposed budget is adopted.

Includes Hikes for Boards
This increase is accounted for in several areas. The Department head item is increased, from $6,620 in 1966 to $8,000 in 1967. There is also a $1,000 increase in the salary for the deputy. The chairman of the board will get an increase of $900, the majority and minority leaders salaries will be increased $1,000 each and the 30 other supervisors will each receive an $800 increase.

Expect 650-750 Yule Road Toll
CHICAGO (AP) — A Christmas weekend traffic death toll of between 650 and 750 persons was estimated today by the National Safety Council.

The holiday period covered is from 6 p.m. Friday, Dec. 23 to midnight Monday, Dec. 26.

The council said that in a non-holiday period of equal length at this time of year the toll would be about 525.

Most of the nation's drivers will be on the road at some time during the weekend, the council said. This will raise the travel volume to 7.6 billion miles from 7.3 billion for a nonholiday period.

Aldrich Bids Yale Set Up Branch at Vassar College
Suggestions that Yale University establish a branch at Vassar College were made over the weekend by Alexander Aldrich, executive director of the Hudson River Valley Commission.

His comment followed on the heels of announcement of a plan for a joint study of a close Yale-Vassar relationship which might result in Vassar College moving to or near the Yale campus at New Haven, Conn.

Aldrich said, "It would be a tragedy for Poughkeepsie and the Hudson Valley if Vassar were to move." Aldrich has long been interested in attracting educational institutions to the Mid-Hudson Valley. He expressed hope that Vassar College will stay in Poughkeepsie and en-

Resume Air Attacks In Hanoi Vicinity

SAIGON, South Vietnam (AP) — U.S. warplanes returned to the Hanoi area with clearing weather over the Red River Valley today and attacked the Ha Gia fuel storage area 14.5 miles north of the North Vietnamese capital, a U.S. spokesman reported.

First Since Last Week
It was the first air strike against Hanoi since heavy strikes in the area last Tuesday and Wednesday. The U.S. Command said foul weather had forced U.S. air raiders to concentrate on North Vietnam's southern panhandle.

In the South, the United States continued beefing up its troop strength with the arrival of a guerrilla-trained brigade of the 9th Infantry Division — the old outfit of Gen. William C. Westmoreland, U.S. commander in South Vietnam. He was on hand to greet them.

Ground fighting tapered off to small-scale skirmishes. In the new raids in the Hanoi area, a U.S. spokesman in Saigon said, initial pilot reports indicated all the ordnance from the U.S. planes hit in the target area.

Sight MIG Jets
The pilots reported sighting Communist MIG jets in the area of the dump, but preliminary reports disclosed no exchange of fire.

The raids last week set off a series of Communist charges that homes were bombed in Hanoi.

Report Move To Patch Up Book Case

NEW YORK (AP) — Spokesmen for two publishers involved in the dispute with the Kennedy family over publication of the book, "The Death of a President," disclosed today that efforts are being made to settle the matter out of court.

Denies Faith Broken
The disclosure followed a statement by William Manchester, author of the book, denying that he had broken faith with Mrs. John F. Kennedy or that he had taken advantage of her confidence in him.

The book is about the assassination of President Kennedy.

"There are continuing efforts to patch things up," said a spokesman for Harper & Row, Publishers Inc., which plans to bring out the 300,000-word hard-cover book in April.

"Every effort will be made to work things out," the spokesman said. "There are always the author's rights and her rights."

Stedge Offers New County Apport Plan

A plan under which Ulster County would be divided into four districts with three legislative representatives from each district, has been proposed by Justice of the Peace Robert S. Stedge of the Town of Ulster. The plan will be submitted to the Board of Supervisors tonight when it is expected a reapportionment plan will be acted upon.

Needed by Dec. 31
The court has directed that reapportionment to provide for a "one man one vote" plan be presented to the court by Dec. 31.

A plan has been prepared for submission to the Board of Supervisors by the Board's Special Committee on Reapportionment. Under that plan the county could be divided into 12 legislative subdivisions with a total of 33 representatives. The towns and wards of the city would be aligned according to population and each legislative district would be represented by members according to population.

The number of representatives would vary from one to five in the large districts.

The proposed plan of Justice Stedge provides for four districts with each district electing three representatives, running at large in the district.

Under his plan each district would have approximately the same number of voters, approximately 30,000, or less than 5 per cent deviation.

In a communication to the Board of Supervisors Justice Stedge noted that the board is being called upon to make a decision regarding reapportionment without a public hearing and "without due consideration for possible change."

Scores System
The present system of 33 members of the board he calls "unwieldy, cumbersome, inefficient," and he charges that this is the opportune time to change this and adopt a more efficient system.

His plan, he states, has been

Bar Group Scores Resnick's Attack On Two Attorneys

The Ulster County Bar Association today issued a resolution condemning the tactics and procedures of Congressman Joseph Y. Resnick in making "groundless accusations against the county attorney and assistant county attorney."

Prepared by Directors
The resolution was prepared by the board of directors of the Ulster County Bar Association in accordance with a resolution adopted unanimously at its recent regular meeting and was released today through its president, George A. Beck.

The congressman recently called for the disbarment of Abram F. Molyneux, county attorney and Richard W. Griggs, assistant county attorney for their conduct in the performance of their duties in the adoption case involving the Michael Liuni family of Tillson and 4½ year old Beth St. John, foster child who has resided with them since she was five days old.

The resolution is as follows: "Whereas, it has been reported in the public news media (Continued on Page 44, Col. 5)

Hunted Teener Gives Up, Charged in Trooper Death

GREENSBURG, Ind. (AP) — A teen-ager hunted in the slaying of a state trooper held an elderly farm couple captive more than five hours before surrendering Sunday without resistance.

James Lee Collins, 18, Erlanger, Ky., was jailed on a preliminary charge of first-degree murder.

A companion, James W. Sprinkle, 29, Newport, Ky., died in the gun battle which killed trooper William R. Rayner, 30, Greensburg.

Lawrence B. Ernest, 78, and his wife, Christine, 76, said they were confronted by the youth when they returned home from church.

52, and his wife, Ruby, 52, stopped by 5½ hours later, the Elder Mrs. Ernestes signaled that something was wrong. The daughter-in-law darted from the house, ran down the road and flagged one of the dozens of police cars combing the area.

Collins and Sprinkle were absent without leave from the Louisville, Ky., Community Guidance Center, a supervisory institution for parolees. Authorities said they were in a stolen car with Sprinkle driving when Rayner stopped them early Sunday on Interstate 74 about three miles east of here.

David Blodgett Jr., 38, of Greensburg, a deputy sheriff with the trooper, said as Rayner approached the auto on foot, (Continued on Page 22, Col. 6)

Exercise and Your Heart—A Matter Of Vital Health

Physical exercise should be fun and regular exercise may be particularly good for your heart as well as generally beneficial to your health. That's the message, in brief, of a new cartoon illustrated leaflet available from the Mid-Hudson Heart Association. The leaflet, "Physical Activity and Your Heart" is one of a series in a national educational emphasis campaign on possible ways to reduce heart attack, American's Number One Killer.

Some of the do's and don'ts for adopting daily routine of physical activity include: Start easily, with a little bit of exercise at a time; walk whenever you can, short distances at first, longer later; start with a few stretching exercises, step up the pace gradually; exercise regularly; choose a fun activity; walk briskly instead of strolling; never over-do it; don't exercise only now-and-then; make it a regular affair; and under no circumstance make a big change in your physical activity without consulting your doctor and getting his approval.

The leaflet points out that people who are "physically active on the job tend to have fewer heart attacks than those with desk jobs. And if they have heart attacks, they are apt to come later in life and be less severe."

Lack of regular exercise has been identified as one of the factors related to the high rate of heart attacks in the United States. Other factors recognized by the Heart Association as tending to increase this risk (singly or in combination) are high blood pressure, high blood cholesterol level, overweight, diabetes and cigarette smoking.

Among the benefits of regular exercise cited in the leaflet are improved functioning of the lungs, heart and other organs and muscles, greater physical stamina and zest for living, strain, and greater ability to relax for rest and sleep. Regular exercise also makes it easier to maintain normal weight. A possible added effect may be the lowering of blood cholesterol levels, another risk factor in heart disease.

This leaflet and other materials on reducing risk factors associated with heart attack are available on request from Mid-Hudson Heart Association, 268 Fair Street.

Business Week in Review

By JOHN CUNIFF
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — Upon us now is a season commonly referred to as winter by some but more often as the ski season by somewhere between 1.5 million and 6 million Americans.

Since nobody knows the definition of a skier, the estimates vary widely. The people who operate the ski areas say, however, that at least two million individuals ski regularly and often.

As the definition of a skier broadens, however, so do the figures.

Some Don't Ski

Many people, for example, buy ski clothes and never ski, spend money on transportation to ski resorts but then sit in the sun, wear ski boots merely for the secure feeling they give when rested on the bar's brass rail.

In some statistics, however,

Cuba Limits Christmas

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Cuba has limited the number of Havana stores and homes that may put up Christmas decorations, Havana radio reports.

The reason: Communist officials don't want the city's shaky electrical power system overloaded.

Power failures are frequent in Havana, sometimes blacking out areas of the capital for up to six hours.

all these count as skiers. This leads to the distinction of skiing as a sport and skiing as an industry. The latter is, of course, larger.

So rapidly is the skiing industry growing now that it threatens to encompass much of fall and some of spring as well as all the winter months. Even in summer, in fact, ski movies have a popular following.

From this growing activity and its related pastimes, the retailers of clothes and equipment, of transportation and room and board, expect to earn $750 million this season. This is the industry's own estimate.

The figure goes up about 15 per cent each year and, based on reportedly higher sales of "thing and equipment early this season, may grow at an extreme rate of 20 per cent this season.

Broken Bones

Skiing is not the most violent of sports but it is, unquestionably, one of the more violent participant sports. The industry, however, does not boast of its busted bones with the same enthusiasm as it brags of sales.

In just one weekend early this year at least 450 skiers were injured badly enough on New England ski slopes to need medical treatment, many of them with broken bones. These figures are a minimum, for the survey was far from complete.

An estimate comes from a casualty insurance company that about six of every 1,000 active skiers on a given day will be injured and that about 55 per cent of them will be beginners.

Although the economic loss may be small in many of the accident cases, it can run into thousands of dollars and the loss of months of work. Ski injuries often are twist injuries, resulting in displacement as well as fracture.

In most instances individual or group insurance policies pay much of the medical bills for, generally speaking, the insurance companies consider skiing accidents no different than other accidents.

A dispassionate attitude also exists among participants. At a large New York life insurance company last week the activities committee made plans for a ski trip to upstate New York.

Said a spokesman: "Why should we be worried about injuries? Last year we had four girls injured in bicycle accidents in Bermuda. We didn't have that many from skiing."

Man of Rare Talent

Walt Disney: A Public Image And The Loner Nobody Knew

EDITOR'S NOTE — Walter Elias Disney was a very special man, even in Hollywood, headquarters for offbeat types. His career was unique. And Disney the man differed materially from his public image. AP columnist Bob Thomas, author of two books about Disney and his methods, writes knowledgeably about the famed movie innovator in five stories beginning today.

By BOB THOMAS

AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — What kind of man was Walt Disney?

Everyone knows the public image. It shone forth every Sunday night on his television show as he genially introduced the entertainment that his studio had concocted. He was folksy.

down-to-earth, the perfect picture of anyone's favorite uncle. Films Sunny, Optimistic

The Disney image was also projected in the films he made over a 40-year period. Almost invariably they were sunny, optimistic and wholesome — completely suitable for family audiences.

Rarely did he swerve from that formula. Parents gasped when a modern couple sipped martinis in a Disney film, "The Parent Trap." His venture into sexy scenes began and ended with a sequence in "Bon Voyage" when a Parisian prostitute engaged Fred MacMurray in a bit of banter in front of his teenage son.

"That was a disaster," Walt admitted later. "You should have seen the mail I got over it. I'll never do that again."

His public appearances and his movies tended to create a somewhat antiseptic image of Walt Disney. Behind the image was a human being, a man of rare talent but possessed with normal feelings and frailties.

Only twice did he seek interests outside his studio life; each time he was forced into it. During reading or watching films, the verge of a nervous breakdown from overwork. "Find a hobby," his doctors told him.

Polo Didn't Last

He found a vigorous one: playing polo with such figures as Will Rogers, Spencer Tracy, Darryl Zanuck and Charles Farrell. But the hobby didn't last.

After World War II, Disney again approached the brink of exhaustion as he fought to reshape his product to the peacetime market. This time he took up the hobby of miniature trains, and he plunged into a home railroad with his usual vigor. Out of it came his ideas for Disneyland.

Like many great men, Walt Disney was a loner. He knew each day the loneliness of making command decisions that might require the outlay of millions and perhaps place his while enterprise in jeopardy.

No Party Goer

His personal life was solitary. He had a few close friends, mostly businessmen of a conservative nature. He and his wife Lillian seldom appeared at Hollywood parties. On rare occasions he attended a banquet, often to receive an award. But such gatherings made him uncomfortable, and he was always happy to leave.

His favorite retreat was the Smoke Tree Ranch near Palm Springs, where he liked to retire for long weekends whenever his work schedule permitted. There Lillian tended her flower garden while Walt rode horseback through the desert hills. He returned to the studio refreshed and brimming with ideas to please and delight the world's audiences.

Next: The source of the Disney genius.

Post 150 Notes Member Gain

"Advance membership enrollment for 1967 has reached 390 members paid," vice-commander John C. Kuehn the Post 150 membership chairman, advised The Freeman today. With the first of the year two weeks away we are reasonably certain to show 400 paid memberships on our books to start out the 1967 membership year.

"This is a slight gain in memberships over 1965," the Post 150 membership chairman said. He pointed out that, because of the membership gain the local organization is enjoying, the post is looking ahead to bigger and better programs for the benefit of Kingston.

Post 150 Commander Robert V. Delaney lauded membership chairman Kuehn and the outstanding task he is performing in this direction and in behalf of the organization.

"This growth," Commander Delaney pointed out, "added to the increases shown by other posts throughout the state and nation, is an important contribution to the Legion's national leadership in mustering expressions of support of our country's policy to defend the cause of freedom throughout the world."

"The enthusiastic reaction of the nation's war veterans to join the ranks of the American Legion is also an affirmation of the cause of responsible citizenship. National Commander John E. Davis has dedicated his year in office to a rekindling of the flame of responsible citizenship—a fervent respect for law and order — throughout America. This is the Legion's positive answer to the violent, and sometimes lawless expressions by irresponsible elements of our society which affect our national security."

Old misconceptions die out as slowly as old diseases. When the old misconception is about an old disease, it can take even longer.

Many people must have been startled to learn that tuberculosis was fifth among diseases for which disability benefits were granted in a recent year under the Social Security program. TB is supposed to have got lost or mislaid somewhere, according to a popular notion. Unhappily it is still around to the tune of almost 50,000 new cases and 10,000 relapsed patients every year.

Even worse than the effects of tuberculosis, as reflected in the disability tables, were the ravages caused by another serious lung disease—emphysema. Persons certified as disabled by emphysema in a single year totalled about 15,000—second in number among all diseases. Tuberculosis and emphysema are just two among many diseases of the breathing system that are fought by Christmas Seals. Unlike TB, emphysema has been on the increase. Steady research and increasing experience have enabled doctors to develop techniques for making the patient more comfortable, but so far no cure is in sight.

Other respiratory diseases, including chronic bronchitis, asthma, hay fever and the common cold, also are the objects of a long-range attack by the Christmas Seal organizations active throughout the nation.

You get a lot of action for your investment in Christmas Seals. It isn't too late to respond to the 1966 Christmas Seal Campaign appeal.

GRAND JURY FUNCTION

Rumors and suspicions of "irregularities" in the administration of the Ulster County Welfare Department should be confirmed or removed completely from the public scene and the way to do it is through Grand Jury action.

Citizens have a duty and obligation to step forward and present evidence to the Grand Jury, which is comprised of citizens of all walks of life. Persons desiring to testify can contact the district attorney.

The Grand Jury has power, and it is their duty, to inquire into all crimes committed or triable in the county and to present them to the court. Grand Juries are clothed with inquisitorial powers and of their own motion may make full investigation to see whether a crime has been committed, and if so, who committed it. They may investigate on their own knowledge, or upon information of any kind derived from any source deemed reliable.

In reaching a decision, a Grand Jury has wide power and wide latitude. It may in any case ask the advice of any judge of the court, or of the district attorney of the county. The Grand Jury, however, is not obliged to call in the district attorney but may vote to indict without his presence, and, indeed against his advice.

The function of the Grand Jury is to hold people for trial or refuse to do so on the basis of evidence presented to it. Its deliberations are secret.

The number of "no bills" returned each year is an indication of the value of the grand jury as a protector of the public.

DISASTROUS STOVE FIRES

With the coming of wintry weather bringing with it snow, ice and frigid temperatures, there is a tendency on the part of everyone to push their heating facilities to their limits in order to keep their homes comfortable. This is particularly true of the holiday season while friends and relatives are being entertained.

Each year we report a number of disastrous fires, some resulting in loss of life, which originate from small stoves in homes where there are no central heating units.

Portable heaters should be placed on a level space and in a location where there is a minimum of danger that it will be knocked over. Never place the stove close to any combustible surfaces, curtains, clothing or other flammable material. The heater should not be moved when it is lighted and should never be left burning in an unoccupied room.

In fact, any type of heating equipment can be dangerous if not properly installed, maintained and operated.

With the use of simple precautions, most of these heating apparatus fires can be prevented.

BOY AND JACKKNIFE

The talk had turned to Christmas celebrations long ago, and the old-timer had much to tell about the simpler and less prosperous days of yore. Often, he said, a lad was lucky to get one gift—a small wooden wagon, perhaps, or a jackknife.

A jackknife! One listener had almost forgotten the word, but hearing it brought the memories of his own boyhood flooding in. There was something special, he remembered, about that knife. It had an awl, and a can opener—and above all a big, keen blade for whittling. A fellow could fashion anything with a blade like that, given the right piece of wood—or so, at any rate, it seemed.

Today's boys, most of them, will get presents that far outshine a jackknife. But the lad without one, whether he knows it or not, will be poorer in one sense than the old-timer was in his boyhood before the turn of the century.

ALCOHOL DETECTOR

British bobbies, traditionally unarmed, are now carrying a new weapon. This is not a gun but a "nipper sniffer"—an alcohol detector. It is already credited with significantly reducing traffic accidents, says Rodale's Health Bulletin.

"These Days"

By JOHN CHAMBERLAIN

THE NIHILIST REVOLUTION IN THE U.S.

In pre-revolutionary Russia, there was something called the Narodnik movement. The Narodniks were young people, sons and daughters of the intelligentsia with an occasional scion of a noble house interspersed, who believed in going to "the people" to carry out good works. It was a promising movement, but World War I cut it short, and with the collapse of the Russian armies and the subsequent failure of the Kerensky government, it never had a chance of revival. The Russian muzhiks, the peasants, were left to the tender mercies of Lenin's Bolsheviks, who used them to forward the Communist takeover and then, in the man-made famine of the Thirties, deprived them not only of their land but their lives.

To anyone who has a taste for analogies, it must seem that the Narodnik movement has been reborn in the United States. This was brought home to me the other day when Governor George Romney, speaking at a National Association of Manufacturers luncheon in New York, gave his businessmen audience a rather detailed briefing on the 4,000 Michigan college students who had volunteered to do remedial work in slum area grammar schools throughout their state. Such organizations as Operations Crossroads Africa, a voluntary predecessor of the government-operated Peace Corps, represent an extension of the Narodnik idea. There is a tremendous potential in contemporary U.S. "Narodnikism," and, by mentioning the pre-revolutionary Russian analogy, I mean nothing critical. Narodniks are this column's natural allies.

But there is another way in which the modern U.S. is coming to resemble pre-revolutionary Russia that is not so good. This is in the nihilist movement, which was far more important than Marxism, which was an intellectual importation from western Europe. The Russian nihilist had no particularly constructive vision of society; their big aim was to pull the Romanoff state down.

The Russian nihilists were likely to be men of drastic action willing even to shoot at a czar. Fortunately, the new American nihilists (unless Lee Harvey Oswald can be called one of them) have not yet gone in for killing. Their destructiveness has been aimed at the rules and regulations of the University of California at Berkeley, or at the efforts of Navy and CIA recruiters to make contact with the young on the college campuses, or at General Hersey's efforts to enforce the Draft, or at military trains carrying men and supplies to docks in the San Francisco Bay area. This form of nihilism distains the legislative process. And it perplexes the old-time Red hunters who used to worry about Gus Hall's official Communist Party. It is a "felt" movement, not a reasoned movement, and, since it springs from the grassroots, it is hard for such protective organizations as the F.B.I. to document it and classify it. It doesn't grow from a conspiracy, it is a contagion.

I was put on to the nihilistic parallel between pre-revolutionary Russia and the modern United States by a young man from New Orleans named Edward Scannell Butler the executive vice president of something called the Information of radio sequences such as the anti-Castro news documentary called "Hitler in Havana." When Ed Butler got out of the armed services, he had an ambition to fight the spread of Communism. He began his career by doing such things as interviewing Lee Harvey Oswald when the latter was secretary of the New Orleans chapter of the Fair Play for Cuba Committee. Though Oswald was then a Marxist, and had studied and worked in Russia, he was obviously not an "organizational" type. It wasn't long before Butler had his eyes opened to the curious fact that youthful rebellion, in the United States, wasn't Communist or even Marxist in its motivation. It was something not defined and without a constructive vision—i.e., it was nihilism.

Coming from the Romney talk about the 4,000 young U.S. "Narodniks" who want to help the deficient students in Michigan grade schools, and running into Mr. Butler (who talked about nihilists), the full comparison between pre-revolutionary Russia and contemporary America struck me. Analogies admittedly may prove nothing, but maybe they can serve to clarify contemporary trends. At the very least they serve to point up the fact that Marx's "Das Kapital" has very little to do with inspiring revolt among our young.

THE WELL CHILD

Push-Button Toys Stifle A Child's Imagination

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Toys should help children learn without knowing they are learning. Many modern toys stifle a child's imagination rather than stimulate his creativity. These are the toys that do only one thing, leaving the child nothing to do after he has pushed a button. Here is a list of some of the simple toys that have stood the test of time: Well-made building blocks in an assortment of shapes and sizes.

Wood or plastic construction materials that fit together.

Toys with which to play at being grown-up, such as dolls, stuffed animals (pets), dump trucks, doctor kits, carpenter tools and chemistry sets—all geared to the child's age and attainments.

Simple materials for artistic endeavors—crayons, paints, slates, modeling clay and beads.

Costumes or puppets for producing plays.

Games that encourage the use of numbers, such as dominoes, parchesi or a toy watch.

Equipment for exercising, such as tricycles, bicycles, skates, swings, scooters and wagons.

Educational toys of all kinds, including nesting blocks, geometric design equipment, color-matching games, magnets, magnifying glasses and ant farms.

This is just a partial list of the many fine toys that will help your child develop interests, many of which he will keep throughout his life.

Q—What diseases do cats carry? I've heard they will lie on a baby's head and smother him and that swallowed cat hairs will turn into worms.

A—Mysterious deaths occurring in apparently healthy babies—the so-called crib deaths—have been erroneously attributed to many causes, including malevolent pets. The real cause of some of these deaths is an allergy to cow's milk. Worms are caused by swallowing minute eggs, not cat hairs.

Cats make fine pets but their bites or scratches, like those of any other animal, can become infected and should not be regarded lightly. And then there is the disease erroneously called cat scratch fever which is due to the introduction into a scratch wound (from a pin, thorn or claw) of a virus that was present on the skin at the time of the scratch. In the long run, human beings give cats more diseases than cats give humans.

an officer spots a citizen who looks a bit under the weather, he approaches and with the customary British politeness invites the person to breathe into the detector. If it rings, the erstwhile driver is persuaded to go home in a cab.

The "nipper sniffer" met with objections at first on the ground that it was an invasion of privacy, but British courts have upheld its use.

With the Gemini program triumphantly over, it's on to the moon! Now if only someone could figure out what to do when we get there.

"You Have a Bandaid Handy---I Hope!"

Washington News

By RAY CROMLEY
Washington Correspondent
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

For some time spotty reports have been arriving here from the mainland indicating a widespread breakdown of official and Communist party discipline in the Red China country-side.

It is not anti-Maoism. It isn't just a reaction to the Red Guards. It began before the Red Guards moved into operation. There were reports of graft, moral corruption, slovenly management and "local empires."

Minor Communist government officials in the provinces reportedly have carved out small fiefs for themselves. They take rackets. They dip in the government till and build themselves beautiful offices and homes. They cooperate, for a fee, in illegal manufacture and trade.

They shake down businessmen and farmers. They use their influence to force women to do their will. They embezzle government funds. They take money for giving some people larger shares when scarce foods and other goods are distributed.

Just how far this corruption has spread and how deep it goes isn't clear. Party reports have said it is widespread and is serious in numerous areas.

Mao Tse-tung and Lin Biao set up the new youth units in part and sent them into the countryside in an attempt to stop this breakdown. (They also were organized, of course, to attack the enemies of Mao and Lin.)

Youth groups were organized for most provinces. They would move into a district with unusual authority to remove and jail officials.

Each group was given a quota of how many officials to purge in its district. It was up to the youth group to find enough culprits in its area to meet its quota.

Difficulties have arisen. In their zeal to meet quotas, some youth groups have cut the administration of some districts to pieces. Officials have been charged and purged with little or no evidence. Men have used these "tribunals" to denounce their enemies.

The youth groups have also found corruption among the men who have strong connections in high places in the party.

Some of these youth units have divided. Each part of a divided group has then attacked men favored by the other part. In some towns this has resulted in chaos.

However the present fight for power within Communist China turns out, it will take a strong man and a trained organization to bring back order.

No matter how things may be smoothed over at the top, Red China is going to have serious difficulties for some time to come.

Jim Bishop: Reporter

The old lady of Fifth Avenue is Tiffany. She doesn't look 129. The building is a cube of brown sugar at 57th St. Inside, there are five floors of jewels, plate and ceramics worth $30,000,000. The cheapest item is a silver key for rolling toothpaste tubes from the bottom: $4.50.

It is a quite store, even at Christmas. A tall, handsome man with a splash of gray walks unnoticed from counter to counter.

He is Walter Heving, chairman of the board. The only jewelry he wears are two items he never bought: a signet ring and cufflinks given to him by his father. Mrs. Heving prefers pearls. She tells this to her personal Santa again and again.

Hoving winces. A strand of pearls at Tiffany can run up to $100,000. A young girl came in one afternoon and studied a necklace with a pink luster. Her boyfriend, chewing gum and unzipping his leather jacket, watched. "How much?" she said.

The clerk said: "$50,000." She turned a tired smile at her fiancé. "How much you got?" she said. He said: "A dollar."

"See?" she said. "All I need is 50,000 boyfriends like him." Long ago, Diamond Jim Brady bought all his gems at Tiffany. So did President Abraham Lincoln. He got a necklace for his wife and no discount. Ten years ago, Dwight Eisenhower had a medal made for his Mamie.

"How about a discount?" Hoving said to the Tiffany board. "No," the other men said. "If Lincoln didn't get a markdown, he doesn't either."

At one time, a real pearl necklace sold for $950,000. No one dared ask the husband what crime he committed. Now pearls are cultured and Tiffany gets theirs from the Gulf of Tonkin. On the third floor, I saw a chased goblet: $70. I have a mental oil painting of my kids washing it in the kitchen sink. There was a ceramic thrush nesting for $1,350. A 14-karat golf putter costs $1,500. This is twice as expensive as the golfer.

Anyone who wants to have a Tiffany label on a gift can buy a small silver oil can for $15. It squirts vermouth into martinis. On the other hand, for those who want to make a splash, there is a necklace, clasped by an owl in diamonds with sapphire eyes, marked down to a mere $99,000. A cheap one-karat diamond with more flaws than a glass eye after a brawl costs $800. A flawless one, if it is large—say, 20 karats—costs $15,000 per k. There is a square emerald, sitting like Irish glass in an ordinary ring, with a tag on it that reads $89,650.

One item mesmerized me. It is a big necklace with 16 square sapphires, in colors ranging from blue to pink and orange. Between each of the sapphires is a jasmine flower made in diamonds. Sixteen sapphires, 800 diamonds: $128,000. An old crone could wear that, and nothing else, and look like an elegant lady.

Tiffany has always had a reputation as the world's great jewelry store. Recently, Mr. Hoving opened branches in San Francisco, Beverly Hills, Houston and Chicago. At the time, some of the gaudy customers thought that this was putting it on a plane with the supermarkets. All it did for Tiffany was to build business about 900%.

Chicago staged a grand welcome. A bunch of hoods followed the manager in one morning and rifled the place of $1,000,000 in gems. Others, less imaginative, merely cut ribbons across the front door. One of Hoving's acquaintances, Francis Cardinal Spellman, maintains that "dia-

Today in National Affairs

Few Experienced to Take Helm in Troubled Times

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON — The tendency to overlook the obvious is no better illustrated than in the discussions going on now among the Republicans as to who they might select as a presidential nominee in 1968. Who, for instance, in the Republican party has had the necessary experience to take over as a President of the United States in these troublous times?

Thus, the governor of a state no matter how spectacular or how articulate he may be in a campaign, could in the next two years — while he is deeply enmeshed in state affairs—hardly learn enough about national and international problems to make at once big decisions such as confront the chief executive of the United States.

About the only Republican at present with an experience in presidential problems is the former Vice President Nixon, who spent eight years at the side of President Eisenhower. But even Mr. Nixon has not had since January 1961—a period of nearly six years — the opportunity to become intimately acquainted with the inner currents and background information of the presidency as of today. Nor do the Democrats—if President Johnson is not a candidate — have any body, with the possible exception of Vice President Hubert Humphrey, who is currently familiar with the inside of important policies.

The man in the White House is kept in touch every day with the confidential reports and intelligence summaries that come from all over the world. He must be well posted also on the many aspects of domestic questions relating to pending legislation and the execution of existing laws.

Theoretically, any member of the cabinet would be a logical candidate for the presidency on the ticket of the incumbent party. But unfortunately each cabinet secretary is merely the manager of a single department of government. Rarely does a president talk over international questions nowadays with a secretary of the interior, for instance. Nor does he ask the secretary of state's advice on how to deal with the problems of the Post Office Department. Cabinet meetings on General subjects are infrequent—mostly because a president doesn't think the individual members are familiar enough with the problems in which he is directly engaged.

This weakness in the American system is all too apparent. In Canada, Great Britain and other countries with a parliamentary establishment, the departments are actually run by deputies who are career men. The cabinet officers themselves form a group of advisers to the prime minister. No important decision is made without giving them a chance to express themselves and, in order to do this, they are kept closely informed right along on all phases of governmental policies.

Even the opposition party sets up a "shadow cabinet," which meets constantly and formulates its own position on various questions. It receives information from the party in power, particularly since these leaders themselves are as a rule members of the legislative body.

Many tragic errors have been made in the United States because of the unfamiliarity of an incoming president with the background of the executive office on critical questions.

It is a curious thing about American politics that the actual qualifications of an aspirant for the office of president are not examined carefully. Much more attention is given to utterances either criticizing the incumbent administration or promising beneficial measures to the public. The real capacity of a potential nominee to deal with legislative questions, budgetary problems and the like get little consideration in the course of a campaign.

A nominee for the presidency can be elected—and many have been — even if he has never served a day in the executive or the legislative branch of the federal government. A few former governors are in the Senate today. Oddly enough, however, nobody is even suggesting that governors ought to serve at least one term in the Senate before they can qualify to make a bid for the presidency.

Gets in Zip Plug

NEW LONDON, Conn. (AP) — Acting Postmaster Anthony Facas recently answered one of the 200 letters received at the post office addressed to Santa Claus.

He wrote: "Dear little friend. Your letter makes me glad that you are good. Santa is coming to visit all good little girls and boys. Here's love, Santa."

But at the bottom of the letter, Facas added: "P.S., Mr. ZIP will help me find you. You are my helper, too, when you use ZIP code."

Superstitions
Amusing superstitions have leapt out of the flickering of a candle light. If a flame burns blue, there is a ghost in the house. A spark signifies that a letter is coming to the person sitting nearest the candle.

WORLD ALMANAC FACTS

The Maginot Line, built on the eastern border of France after World War I, was once thought to be the strongest military defense system in Europe. Running from Switzerland to Belgium, the complex consisted of bunkers and superfortresses equipped with quarters for troops and storage for supplies and ammunition, says The World Almanac. The forts, some of which were connected by railway tunnels, had heavy artillery, machine guns and antiaircraft guns, all protected by tank traps and barbed wire.

Suit Preference Signal Needed

By Oswald & James Jacoby
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

"How was I to know?" asks a Jackson, Mich., reader. "South had off until the third spade lead and discarded clubs from dummy. Then he ran off dummy's diamond suit. He discarded clubs on the third and fourth diamond and I let two hearts go. I can count to nine and I saw that if South held both ace and queen of hearts he had nine top tricks. On the fifth diamond my partner chucked a spade and South a heart. I let the three of clubs go whereupon South made three club tricks and his contract."

West really had no way to know in the ordinary bridge game but he should probably have hung onto all his clubs on the theory that South was trying to coax him to throw a club away.

In the expert bridge game West would have had no problem at all. That is if East were up on his toes and not just following suit and discarding.

There is a general play known as the suit preference signal in which a low card shows a low suit and a high card a high suit. Expert East would play the jack of spades at trick one. When that held he would continue with the king and the queen. This alone should have been enough to tell West that East held the ace of hearts and not the ace of clubs. East could have played the queen of spades before the king to show the club ace.

However, when it came time for East to discard on the fifth diamond he could have really confirmed this heart ace. He would discard the nine of spades. This discard of the highest spade would confirm the previous suit preference signal and expert West would have had no further problem.

Barry Not Going

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—Barry Goldwater says he may not go to Vietnam after all, mainly because he can't go in a military capacity.

Goldwater said Friday he and his wife, Peggy, planned to leave shortly after Christmas for a tour of the Far East.

Goldwater has said the Department of Defense denied his earlier request to go to Vietnam as an Air Force Reserve Officer.

Open Steel Span
At Ceremonies
In Denning Town

Supervisor Charles Relyea of Hurley, chairman of Ulster County Board of Supervisors, announced today that a new, 150-foot steel bridge spanning the east branch of the Neversink Creek was recently opened at ceremonies in the Town of Denning.

The new, three-span structure, located on the Claryville Road, was constructed at a cost of $108,365.92, and replaces the old iron bridge, known as the "Shultz Bridge," which had served the area for almost three-quarters of a century.

Attending the bridge opening ceremonies were Supervisor Relyea, Supervisor Ralph Bush of the Town of Shandaken, chairman of the Bridge and Highway Committee; Supervisor Harold Van Aken of the Town of Denning; George Fitchner, acting Ulster County highway superintendent, and Ben Conklin, Town Highway Superintendent of Denning.

Following the formal opening of the new, two-lane span to traffic, Supervisor Van Aken praised the action of the Board of Supervisors in providing the necessary funds for the construction of the bridge, and he stated that the long awaited structure would be of great benefit to the Town of Denning.

Supervisor Van Aken added that the old Shultz Bridge had long since outlived its usefulness, and that it impeded the movement of heavy vehicles along the entire length of County Road 107.

According to Chairman Relyea, the newly-opened bridge in the Town of Denning is another example of Ulster County's effort to provide the best possible highway service in all parts of the County, even in the more remote sections of the area.

The chairman of the Board of Supervisors said funds for the county highway system, as well as for bridges on county highways, constitute a major portion of the county budget.

Just as a large share of the state budget is devoted to the construction and maintenance of the state's vast highway system, but added that these expenditures are demanded by the ever increasing volume of traffic which must be carried by both state and local roads. It was further noted by Supervisor Relyea that during the coming year Ulster County will be spending almost three million dollars for highway purposes, which constitutes about one-quarter of the entire county budget.

Another Setback Appears Likely For Russian Man

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
Ivan Ivanovich has had a lot of bad news.
The Russian man in the street suspects he must not aside some of his dreams.
He will be given to understand "the U.S. imperialists" in Vietnam are mostly to blame. He also will get the idea that Red China is partly to blame, too, and he will resent that even more.

Dismayed
Those who know Russians well say that when the Soviet regime announces an increase in the military budget, Ivan can only feel a pang of dismay. This reaction is instinctive. Higher up the social and educational ladder there is more sophisticated knowledge of what goes on. This generates a clash between intellectual elements and the conservative faction of the Communist bureaucracy, and division along these lines appears to extend all the way up to the summit of the leadership.
Thus, the Soviet budget announced last week can cause new strains.
The budget includes the biggest increase in defense spending in four years and the highest military spending rate in more than a decade.

Some Shortages
The government concedes there will be shortages in some raw materials, which probably means military industry will get a bigger share.
There may be fewer television sets, radios, refrigerators and the other things Ivan was buying or planning to buy.
Ivan will suspect that grudgingly things will cost more, too, despite a government effort to keep the lid on retail prices. It is decreed now that industry must be profitable. Somebody has to pay.
Recent visitors to the Soviet Union report a widespread awareness that high party and government leaders are concerned about worsened relations with Red China.
The ordinary Russian, these sources report, sees Red Chinese attitudes as rank ingratitude for past help.
The pressure for more military spending is awkward. The

Speck to Learn Of Trial Site

CHICAGO (AP) — Richard Speck, charged with murder in the July 14 slayings of eight student nurses, was expected to learn today where he will be tried.
Judge Herbert C. Pashon granted a defense motion Dec. 1 to hold the trial outside of Chicago on the ground that an installment plan through credit agencies by state stores, but this has been to least the overall minimum wage to 60 rubles a month by 1970, to double value the country's lowest, and to boost industrial wages by 30 per cent. reduced jury could not be selected in the city.
The Chicago Tribune, quoting an "informed source," said Sunday that the judge had decided to send the trial to Peoria in central Illinois. The Tribune said Peoria's large new courtroom were factors in the decision.

Off to a Flying Start
OFFERLE, Kan. (AP)—Walter Herrmann figures a brood of baby chickens got off to a flying start on his farm. A hen hatched six chicks on a piece of cardboard located on rafters nine feet above the floor of Herrmann's barn. Herrmann doesn't know how the chicks got down to ground level but all were reported running in good shape.

City and County 'Y' Announces Holiday Schedule

Christmas season activities at the Kingston and Ulster County YMCA began Thursday night as two Christmas trees and lobbies were decorated by the Hi-Y clubs. A special schedule has been set up through Jan. 3 when school resumes, officials said.

According to this schedule, the youth lobby will be open from 9 a. m. through 2 p. m. Dec. 22 and 29, with boys gym held for third graders and up from 9 to 10 a. m. followed by recreational swimming.

On Holiday Schedule
All swimming classes have been rescheduled for the holidays, with boys flying fish and shark instruction on Thursdays from 11:30 a. m. to 12:30 p. m., followed by girls beginner minnow classes until 1 p. m. when girls in the fish class take over.

On Dec. 22 and 30, first and second grade boys will have gymnastics from 9 to 10 a. m., then swimming classes from 10 to 11 a. m. All girls are scheduled for a recreational swim from 11 through noon and girls flying fish and shark classes are slated to range from noon through 12:40 p. m.

Other activities include the annual Brother and Sister Christmas Party Dec. 22 from 1:30 to 3 p. m. Those attending are asked to bring a gift valued at not more than 50-cents. Refreshments will be served.

Tournament Stated
Also, on Dec. 27, lobby tournaments in ping-pong, eight-ball and checkers will be staged for third and fourth grades and for fifth and sixth graders. Tuesday, both Hi-Y clubs and leaders are preparing booths for the Winter World Service Carnival Wednesday.

At the carnival, scheduled from 10 a. m. through 4 p. m., skill games and refreshments will be offered with all proceeds to be used for YMCA World Service, providing help to YMCAs in 44 nations.

Besides the carnival, third and fourth grade girls are scheduled for gym from 9 to 10 a. m., followed by a recreational swim. Fifth and sixth grade girls follow at 10 a. m.

Resnick Offices Set Extra Time for Tapes

Congressman Joseph Y. Resnick today announced that his Poughkeepsie and Kingston offices will maintain a schedule of evening hours next week to permit interested persons to record messages for their loved ones in Vietnam.

Resnick, who leaves for a two-week visit to Vietnam Dec. 25, will transport tape-recorded messages from persons in the 28th District to the fighting men. He also plans to meet as many

Period Is Extended For Emergency Loans

Congressman Joseph Y. Resnick today announced that the Department of Agriculture has extended from Dec. 31, 1966 until June 30, 1967, the period for making emergency loans to new applicants.

This action was taken because farmers and dairymen generally have not recovered sufficiently from drought conditions during the past four years to obtain needed credit from normal sources.

Further information concerning emergency loans or other types of assistance available through the Department of Agriculture may be obtained from the local office of the Farmers' Home Administration.

Ask Federal Help In Poughkeepsie Racial Imbalance

Representing 12 Negro pupils in Poughkeepsie schools, Paul Zuber, Croton-on-Hudson attorney, claims school officials in Poughkeepsie have defaulted their case and he will ask the Federal Court in New York City on Tuesday to grant his preliminary injunction against the neighborhood school concept in the city's schools.

Zuber based his allegation of default by the school on the grounds, "Lloyd L. Rosenthal, Board of Education attorney, had not answered my amended motions by the Wednesday deadline." The city made no answer to his original motions.

The Westchester attorney charges "racial imbalance" in grade schools and contends that Negro children are denied the equal protection and due process guaranteed by the Constitution. Zuber said he will use the Board of Education's Citizens Advisory Committee's final report to support his argument of de facto segregation in Poughkeepsie city schools.

Federal Judge Lloyd F. McMahon turned down the original motion, which also sought to delay federal funds for Poughkeepsie's urban renewal project on the grounds it was too vague and wordy for city officials to respond to it. The judge did, however, allow for an amended complaint.

Marvella Claims Resounding Win In Liberal Loss

Joseph A. Marvella, unsuccessful Liberal party candidate for the State senate in the last election, today declared that the Liberal party had won a resounding victory in its defeat.

In a statement released today Marvella said,

"The Liberal party's 1966 gubernatorial campaign has passed into history. Some of our candidates were defeated at the polls, including three of our top four. But many were elected. With the margin of our vote we elected many congressmen, state legislators, judicial candidates and delegates to the Constitutional Convention. There are, moreover, more important ways of assessing victory in defeat than in the mere counting of votes.

"Stopped Machine"

"We stopped the Buckley-

Steingut machine cold. In the last 12 months, the Liberal party has frustrated the bosses' conspiracy to make Abe Beame mayor of New York, Justice Klein Surrogate of New York County, and Frank O'Connor their Governor of this State. In addition, we made the first real dent in the Dan O'Connell machine in Albany by helping to elect the Independent-Republican-Liberal Congressman Dan Button," Marvella said.

"We have thus made it crystal-clear that the Democratic Party cannot win elections in this State without the highest caliber of candidates backed by a broad coalition including the Liberal Party. This is reform in action. For a minority party, I submit this is no mean achievement."

"Popular Party"

Planning Board To Elect Slate At Meeting Today

Annual reports and election of officers will highlight the annual meeting of the Ulster County Planning Board tonight in the county office building.

Progress on the county's application for financial assistance to prepare a comprehensive county plan, new by-laws and progress on the inter-municipal water study will be reviewed.

New business will include discussion of an application for the preparation of a state financed county-wide sewerage study.

Details of the study will be decided by the Ulster County Planning Board, Ulster County Health Department, engineers yet to be selected and representatives from the State Health Department some time next year. Present officers of the planning board are Benjamin Webster, president; Wilbur Peters, vice president and Gifford Beal, secretary.

Describe Panic Scene of Plane Crash in Bogota

BOGOTA, Colombia (AP) — As "people started to scream and call for their children," a Colombian airliner crashed short of the runway while landing at Bogota in heavy fog Sunday, killing 18 persons and injuring 10.

Aerocord Air Lines said the crash took the lives of nine Americans from Florida, five Colombians living in the United States and four other Colombians.

The airline said in Miami, Fla., where the flight began, that the Super-Constellation carried 54 passengers and 6 crew.

One survivor, Kay Tuttle, 23, of Crestline, Ohio, said passengers were told as they neared Eldorado Airport that the plane would land despite thickening fog.

She said the plane struck what she believed was dirt and swayed wildly from side to side. "People started to scream and call for their children and the plane went into total darkness," Miss Tuttle said. The aircraft "seemed to break in two and many people were able to escape. I jumped out through an emergency exit."

She broke a leg. "If the plane had caught fire we all would have been killed," she said.

Ended the Myths
The 16th-Century geographer Gerard Mercator theorized that a southern continent existed, else the world would "topple over amidst the stars." Capt. James Cook, in the 1770s, ended the myths when he charted Australia's coasts.

Shades of Old West

NEVADA, Iowa (AP) — A group of citizens say they've had enough of vandals stealing or ruining their Christmas decorations.

So they formed a committee of armed vigilantes to patrol after dark with shotguns loaded with mustard seed or salt.

Mayor H. A. Shearman says he isn't involved with the holiday decoration defenders — but he'd be delighted to slap a stiff penalty on anybody they bring before his mayor's court.

Lions Club Party For Kids Tonight

Saugerties Lions Club holds its annual Christmas Party tonight at the Flamingo Restaurant. This even popular event is being chaired by Frank Greco, who says Santa Claus will be on hand and club members are invited to bring guests.

The festive occasion will begin with dinner at 6:30 o'clock so that the young guests will have ample time to enjoy the fine fare.

At the most recent meeting of the Glaucoma Clinic committee is hard at work and plans to hold the clinic in early 1967. New member, Thomas Martin, has been named to the committee to serve with William D. Brimmer chairman, and Paul Pavlovich and George Turner in organizing the clinic.

The club plans a joint meeting with the Rip Van Winkle Club of Tannersville in January at the Flamingo Restaurant. Later, the Saugerties group will go to Hunter Mountain Ski Bowl for another joint meeting with the same club.

Reports have been received that the program recently presented by the local club for the County Community Chest program was enthusiastically received by the audience. The radio and TV program had Kenneth Harder and George Turner delivering sports and news reports, Saugerties Melodians singing, and Satan's Messengers from the local high school playing for dancing. Club members here feel that numerous contributions were telephoned in as a result of their participation in the public service project held in Kingston early this month.

Bar Elects Brinnier; Accepts R. Schirmer

Saugerties attorney William D. Brinnier was elected a director of the Ulster County Bar Association at the annual meeting held at the Governor Clinton Motor Inn Tuesday, Dec. 13.

Robert Schirmer, of Saugerties, newly admitted to the bar was accepted as a member of the County Bar Association on motion of his father, attorney Ernest Schirmer, also of Saugerties, with Brinnier seconding the motion.

Brinnier has previously served as president of the Ulster County Bar Association, chairman of the 3,500-member Young Lawyers Section of the New York State Bar Association, and is chairman of the Ulster County Civil Service Commission. He is a partner in the Saugerties law firm of Francello & Brinnier.

Young Schirmer will be associated with the law firm of Schirmer and Carnright of Saugerties.

Error in Veep's Name

In a recent article in this column concerning the election of officers of the Saugerties Democratic Club for the coming year, an error occurred in reporting the name of the new first vice president of the organization. The story should have listed James Keefe as being elected to that position rather than Walter Keefe, who has no formal party affiliations.

Send Yule Kits To Asia and Peru

Seventy-five Kiddies Kits will be the gift of children of Atonement Lutheran Church Sunday school this Christmas for children of Korea, Hong Kong, Vietnam and Peru. The kits contain various useful items and will be distributed to areas of greatest need by Lutheran World Relief. The LCW of the church is also contributing three complete layettes, in addition to the 15 cartons of clothing sent for world need in November.

Mrs. Joseph Schmidt and Mrs. J. Henry Schmidt will be visiting shut-ins of the congregation prior to Christmas to present gifts, cookies and devotional booklets. Gifts and cookies will be distributed to guests at Finger Home.

A Christmas scene of life-size figures is now in place on the church lawn and will be lighted each night through the holiday season.

Two services are planned Christmas Eve, the first a family service at 7 p. m. on The Story of Christmas in Scripture and Song, with carols sung concerning each event. Youth Choir will also sing. At 11 p. m., the annual candlelight communion service will be held with special music by the Senior Choir and organ solos. There will be no 8 a. m. service or Sunday school session Christmas Day. One family service will be held at 11 a. m. on the theme of Come and Worship the Newborn King. Special music will be provided by the Senior Choir.

Candlelight Service

Saugerties Methodist Church plans its traditional candlelight service in song and story for the whole family at 7:30 p. m. on Christmas Eve. Candelabra will decorate the church at the end of every other pew, wrought iron ones will be placed at the altar, electric candles will be lit at the windows and the usual greens and roping will add to the reading of the Christmas story by the pastor. Carol singing and special anthems will also be included.

There will be no party service or church school on Christmas Day. One family service will be held at 11 a. m. on the theme of Come and Worship the Newborn King. Special music will be provided by the Senior Choir.

CHRISTMAS TOYS GALORE — Saugerties Jaycees marked the close of their annual Christmas Toy Project last week as Special Town Policeman Charles Riley arrived to pick up a generous assortment of dolls, doll houses, wagons, games and plush and plastic animals. Generous Saugerties residents donated used toys in excellent condition and cooperative local merchants gave a large quantity of brand new toys to make the project highly successful. As a result, many welfare families will have an abundance of Christmas gifts for their children this year. Sorting toys in the picture above are (l-r) Policeman Riley and Mrs. Michael Catalinotto and Mrs. Francis Antalek, of the Jaycees.

Foster Children Not Forgotten

Members of the local VFW Auxiliary have voted a donation to the New Paltz Auxiliary project of providing Christmas gifts for the 350 foster children in Ulster County. In addition, the local organization will send a Yule present to the Saugerties adopted boy at the National Home.

The group's Christmas in July committee is stepping up production and asking members to save all Christmas gift boxes and unused or unwanted holiday decorations. These may be left with Mrs. Isabel DeCelle or brought to the next meeting.

Members have extended thanks to Mrs. Mary Breithaupt, who has served with distinction as banquet chairman and who spearheaded the drive to remember the servicemen in Vietnam at Christmas. With the list of names she compiled, the Dads of Foreign Service Vets have forwarded 16 boxes to Saugerties boys overseas.

Members are reminded that the Hudson Valley County Council will meet here Jan. 8.

Hundreds to View Living Nativity

For the second year in a row, the Youth Fellowship of Reformed Church of Saugerties will present The Living Nativity on the front lawn of the church on Main Street. Presentations will

Defense Maps Singer's Appeal In Brink Case

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP)—The defense began mapping an appeal today in the case of Joel Singer, a 23-year-old Canadian who has been convicted of participating in a $400,000 burglary here.

Singer, of Montreal, could receive up to 30 years in prison for the conviction on charges of first-degree grand larceny and third-degree burglary in the canon-aided theft from the Brink's office Oct. 25, 1965.

Will Set Date
Onondaga County Judge Ormand N. Gale was scheduled today to set a date for sentencing. The guilty verdict was returned Saturday after the seven-member, five-woman jury deliberated more than 10 hours. The trial took five weeks.

Singer showed no emotion when the decision was announced. His attorney, former assistant U.S. Atty. Dante M. Scaccia, told reporters he would appeal the verdict.

Police theorize that several men broke into the office, blasted away with a 20mm anti-tank weapon to smash the walls and then used a torch to open a hole in the three-inch thick steel vault.

Arrested Year Ago
Singer was arrested in Montreal in December 1965.

Singer's uncle, Jack Frank of Long Beach, testified at the trial that the cannon had been purchased in Alexandria, Va., and that it had later been removed from a warehouse in Plattsburgh, where it had been shipped.

Frank had been arrested on a federal charge of conspiracy. Later, however, he was granted immunity from prosecution after testifying before a grand jury.

There have been no other arrests in the case.

Fiance Injured; Advance Wedding

GREENVILLE, N.C. (AP)—Mrs. Roger Robinson Bisbee had planned to be married Jan. 14—but then her fiance, Marine Sgt. Rogere Bisbee, was injured in an auto accident.

So Miss Jane Robinson, 19, of Springwater, N.Y., Livingston County, visited Bisbee, 20, here Wednesday.

They decided to advance the wedding date instead of waiting for the planned ceremony, which was to be held at the home of her parents.

They were married in the hospital where the groom, who is stationed at nearby Camp Lejeune, is recovering from injuries suffered in the accident a week ago Saturday here.

The new Mrs. Bisbee is an occupational therapist at St. Ann's Nursing Home in Rochester, N.Y.

She said she thought the earlier wedding might cheer her husband.

Bisbee is originally from Findlay, Ohio. The couple met through a mutual friend.

Carroll Gartin, Lt. Governor of Mississippi, Dies

LAUREL, Miss. (AP) — Carroll Gartin, lieutenant governor of Mississippi, died this morning after being admitted to a hospital with a heart ailment.

Gartin, 53, was taken to Jones County Community Hospital at 10 p.m. Sunday. He died at 3 a.m. today.

A candidate in the 1967 governor's race, Gartin was serving his third term as lieutenant governor. He had held the office from 1952 to 1960 and from 1964 until his death.

He lost a bid for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination to Ross Barnett in 1959. Gartin was chairman of the Mississippi Democratic Convention in 1956 and again in 1964.

Gartin served as acting governor last week while Gov. Paul Johnson was away on state business.

Born in Meridian Sept. 4, 1913, he attended the University of Mississippi and Jackson School of Law. He was a veteran of World War II and served twice as the mayor of Laurel.

Solons to Consider Therapeutic Abortion

NEW YORK (AP) — Two leaders in the New York State Assembly predict that legislative action will be taken to legalize therapeutic abortion.

Majority Leader Moses M. Weinstein, D-Queens, said: "I think we are going to meet the problem... I think we ought to meet it head-on in this session and put on the statute books a law which treats... of these therapeutic abortions."

Minority Leader Perry B. Duryea, R-Suffolk, said: "I am sure that it will be an area of concern and study and that in the very near future there will be positive steps taken in this regard."

They appeared Sunday on the WCBS-TV program, "Legislative Hearing."

Civil Service Exam

A new Civil Service examination has just been issued for Intergroup Relations Specialists in the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, the Department of Justice, and the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission. The jobs, paying $7,696 to $10,927, are located throughout the United States. To qualify, applicants must have acquired experience in work involving inter-group relationships and problems and have demonstrated ability to obtain and evaluate information effectively. This experience must also have included ability to meet and deal with individuals and groups which required persuasion and diplomacy, to present realistic solutions orally and in writing, and to resolve differences. Applications will be accepted until further notice. Full information is contained in Announcement No. WA-6-14. Announcements and application forms may be obtained from Leo W. Darwak, examiner-in-charge at Central Post Office, Kingston, or from the Intergroup Board of U.S. Civil Service Examiners for Washington, D. C., 1900 E Street, N. W., Washington, D. C., 20415.

Rolison Urges Careful Decision On State Lottery

State Senator-elect Jay P. Rolison Jr., said in a weekend comment that although the Legislature was given a mandate by the voters in November to implement a state lottery, "the absolute necessity to make it as tight as possible means that we must not rush."

Rolison predicted that legislative action on the voter-approved lottery will be a most difficult problem.

"I am afraid that if a lottery becomes an immediate necessity to prevent a tax increase, there will be a tendency to attempt hasty legislation without adequate safeguards," Rolison said.

Noting that the State Education Department has received approval of the Board of Regents to ask an additional $169.7 million in state aid to education from Governor Rockefeller next year, Rolison said, "this is precisely the sort of pressure which may result in a scramble to get the lottery through the Legislature and result in inadequate safeguards."

Rolison emphasized that he is opposed to any tax increase "particularly in view of the possibility of a federal tax increase."

The Senator-elect for the 38th District, which includes Ulster and Dutchess Counties expressed hope that the Legislature will "take a long, hard look at any programs that would add to the tremendous burden we are asking our taxpayers to carry."

"Therefore," Rolison said, "I do not anticipate that this session will produce any major new programs such as we have had the last few years. The feeling that we ought to go slow is, I believe, sound. Of primary concern is keeping the budget within manageable proportions so that a tax rise can be avoided."

Rome Nurses Agree

ROME, N.Y. (AP)—A walk-out threatened by nursing personnel at the Rome City Hospital was averted late Sunday night, when the employees voted conditional acceptance of a revised paid holiday and vacation schedule.

The 135 employees, including registered nurses, licensed practical nurses and aides, had voted last week to provide only "minimum emergency services" beginning Wednesday if their demands were not met.

The nurses had sought four weeks vacation after 10 years and two additional paid holidays and three weeks vacation after 10 years service.

The hospital's Board of Managers agreed to give the employees four weeks vacation after 15 years, with a vacation provision for part-time nurses. In addition, they are to receive two more paid holidays a year.

Syracuse Man Is Killed in Crash

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP)—William R. McNish, 33, of Syracuse, was killed and two other men injured early today when an automobile veered off a city street and snapped a utility pole.

His brother, James, 23, was reported in good condition at the Upstate Medical Center. Another occupant of the car, Ronald Bartel, 30, of suburban Baldwinville, suffered minor injuries and was treated at the hospital and released.

The McNish address was 1623 Spring Street. Bartel lives on Seneca Beach Road.

Today in History

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Today is Monday, Dec. 19, the 353rd day of 1966. There are 12 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history: On this date in 1776, the second series of Thomas Paine's "The Crisis" was published in the "Pennsylvania Journal." It began with the famous words: "These are the times that try men's souls."

On this date: In 1907, coal mine disaster in Jacobs Creek, Penn., killed 239 persons.

In 1924, William Green was elected president of the American Federation of Labor.

In 1939, a German freighter being chased by a British cruiser took refuge at Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

In 1941, Adolf Hitler became commander-in-chief of the German Army—after removing Field Marshal von Brauchitz.

In 1950, General of the Army Dwight D. Eisenhower was appointed supreme commander of European defense.

Ten years ago—Vice President Richard Nixon, sent to Austria to assess the Hungarian situation, indicated the United States would accept more than the 21,500 Hungarians already expected to be admitted.

Five years ago—A U.S. Air Force transport plane crashed in seven crewmen.

One year ago—French President Charles de Gaulle, in a runoff election, won a new seven-year term as chief of state in France.

Yuletide Season Special Time at Phoenicia Library

Christmas Time is a very special time of year for children around the world and at the Phoenicia Library.

The Christmas Art Show is the work of Mrs. Dinah Schlegel's Second Grade at the Phoenicia School. Twenty impressions of winter, Christmas, of any thing without hint or help represent 20 children with runway imaginations.

A Christmas movie-party is scheduled for Thursday, Dec. 29 at 1:30 p. m. at the library. All children are invited to see An Adventure with Andy, Mr. Moto Takes a Walk, and The Monkey Who Would be King.

The Library will be closed on Saturday, Dec. 24 and Monday, Dec. 26; also Saturday, Dec. 31 and Monday, Jan. 2.

Firm Needs New Name Try New State Book

ALBANY—In a booklet issued today by the Department of State as Part II of the New York State Bulletin, Secretary of State John P. Lomenzo declared as formally dissolved Nightmare Records, Inc. 16,000 other stock corporations failing to meet New York State tax law requirements during the past three years.

Among other dissolutions listed are Canhandle, Inc.; Combined Wit Inc.; Have Bread, Will Travel, Inc.; Most Preferred, Inc.; On Your Toes, Inc.; and Smart Buys Unlimited, Inc.

Dissolved corporations listed failed to file reports required under the tax law during three years or have been delinquent in tax payments for three years.

Corporate names listed as dissolved in Lomenzo's announcement, unless reinstated within three months from today, become available for use by new corporations or corporate entities seeking to change their names.

Not included in the booklet, which lists the dissolved corporations alphabetically and codes the corporate names by counties to assist in identifying their location, are corporations formed by special acts, and banking, insurance and railroad corporations.

Copies of the booklet are available at $1 each from the Department of State Bureau of Publications, 162 Washington Avenue, Albany 1225.

Fire Deaths Up Weekend Toll; 11 Die on Roads

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP)—Multi-ple deaths caused by fires in homes sent New York State's accidental death toll soaring over the weekend.

Nine persons perished in three fires, two in New York City and one in Nyack.

In addition, 11 persons lost their lives in automobile accidents.

Hunter Killed

Near Watertown, Roger Herbert Jr., 17, of Rochester, was fatally wounded Saturday while hunting.

The accidental toll began at 6 p.m. Friday and ended at midnight Sunday.

The worst fire of the weekend in the state claimed the lives of three children and a baby-sitter Sunday morning in New York City. Mrs. Natalie Maeder, 46, was baby-sitting with Richard, 4, John, 2, and Barbara Della Sala, 1, children of Mrs. Patricia Pataskoof, who had remarried and was on her honeymoon.

Other deaths, by community and day:

FRIDAY

ALBANY—Allice Denny, 15, of Colonie, struck by a truck while walking along Route 9, near her home.

BAYSHORE—John C. Petersohn, 17, of Bayshore, struck by an automobile while crossing at an intersection.

NORTH TARRYTOWN—Albert Salvatore, 54, of Corton, a two-car crash on Rt. 9 in North Tarrytown.

tain the college. "If we lose Vassar, we will have lost a great deal." He said news of the plan involving Yale and Vassar "comes as a shock, particularly since the city has now gotten well into its urban renewal program, and new people and industries are moving into the county every month."

Maurer noted that the growth of local colleges, including Bard and Dutchess Community, in the last five years, "means that the area is headed toward graduate school facilities." He added, "It seems to me that Vassar in several years will have the kind of relationship with a university which it rightly feels is necessary in this age of academic excellence."

After the plan was made known, Vassar students displayed placards on the campus reading "Wisdom and Men" and "Make Love, Not War."

In a statement at a student rally Saturday at Vassar, Dr. Alan Simpson, president, cautioned against being too optimistic. He contended it would take at least six months for a thorough investigation of the proposed cooperation between the two schools.

The Associated Press, meanwhile, reported from New Haven, Conn., said Dr. Simpson referred to the proposal as "imaginative and exciting."

"The benefits to these two distinguished institutions might be tremendous," he said. "The problems to be faced are formidable."

Simpson said Vassar would have to determine whether its identity could be preserved, whether the New Haven site is big enough, and "whether the prodigious human, legal and financial problems are surmountable."

"The possibilities of such a brilliant partnership, among the varieties of development which are open to Vassar College, merit the most thoughtful study," he said.

Yale President Kingman Brewster Jr. said "I am very pleased that Vassar has accepted our invitation to a joint study."

"The Yale Corporation made it known last March that a further study indicated that if Yale could make a contribution to the education of women at the college level, the coordinate college approach would be preferable to any expansion of Yale College to accommodate women."

"The opportunity to explore these possibilities with Vassar college is a great privilege for Yale."

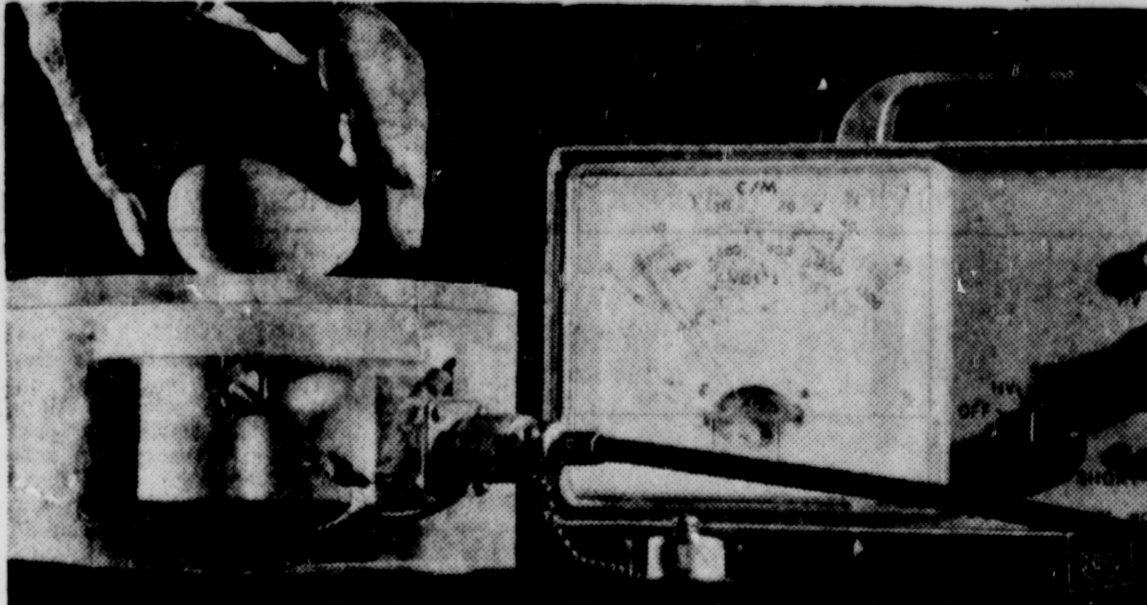

"Whether the interests of both institutions can best be served by such coordinate relationship cannot now be foretold."

"Whatever the outcome of the study, Yale will benefit greatly from his joint exploration with such an eminent and successful sister institution."

Ruby Still Serious

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Jack Ruby, the cancer-stricken killer of Lee Harvey Oswald, remained in serious condition today.

Officials of Parkland Hospital said Ruby suffered some discomfort Sunday when tubes were moved in his chest to drain off more fluid. Ruby was hospitalized Dec. 9, and what was first thought to be pneumonia was diagnosed as cancer.

STRONGER EGGSHELLS may be the result of this experimental gauge developed by the U.S. Department of Agriculture. Called a backscatter gauge, it can measure the fragility of an eggshell in seconds. Such a gauge could assist poultry breeders in establishing lines of laying hens that produce better-protected eggs. An estimated 3 per cent of the 62 billion eggs marketed in 1965 were broken before reaching the consumer.

Ruby's Last Wish

is not plain to every one that it was a million-to-one chance that he would stumble into a situation in which it was even possible that Oswald could be shot," said Gertz.

No Memory of Killing

Gertz and Earl Ruby said Jack Ruby has no recollection of the moment he shot Oswald. "That is a complete blank in his mind," said Gertz. "When he goes over every detail of his movements, he comes to that point and it is a blank for him. He does not deny he killed Oswald, but he has no memory of it."

Gertz said one of the ironies of the case was that police were sent from the street, allowing Ruby to commit a minor traffic offense to get to the Western Union office.

"If Jack hadn't made an illegal turn on Main Street to go into a parking lot in order to be closer to the Western Union office," Gertz said, he couldn't have been in the basement at the precise moment police were transferring Oswald.

"He was going east on Main and made the illegal turn rather than go around the block. He was going to the only Western Union office open that morning to send some money to an employee in need, and when he passed the ramp leading into the basement of the police and courts building, he saw a large number of newsmen there, and thought that Oswald had just been moved."

"He keeps going through these steps, telling how he went into the Western Union office and waited his turn to send the money order. The receipt for it was timed off at 11:17 a.m. then he walked at normal pace about 350 feet back to the ramp where he had seen all the people. "He says he just started walking down the ramp."

Could Ruby have known Oswald was being transferred at that moment?

No One Knew

"No. He swears to this day he did not. And the fact is that no one knew," said Gertz.

"The transfer had been announced for 10 a.m., but no one knew not anyone in the police or the press, because Capt. J.W. Fritz was still questioning Oswald. To say that someone informed Ruby of the time of transfer suggests that there was complicity on the part of the police or other law enforcement people."

"But that fact is that no one knew nor did anyone have any set time to make the actual transfer except for the announced time of 10 a.m. As the record bears out, the change in transfer time occurred when Capt. Fritz decided to interrogate Oswald again. Only Capt. Fritz knew when he would be through with the examination."

"When you reconstruct this, taking the time Jack left the Western Union office, and the time Oswald was shot, which the Warren Commission said was 11:21 a.m., you can see that there was perhaps only a period of 30 seconds, perhaps even less, during which Oswald could be shot by Ruby."

"Only the most disturbed mentality could think or believe there was a plan engineered so that an assassin would have an unmet, unknown period of a few seconds in which to do his job. It would have to be a plan, also, in which there was no hope of escape."

Jack Ruby, himself, says — according to Gertz and Earl Ruby — "would I leave Sheba in the car if I planned to do such a thing?"

First Concern for Dog

Sheba was his favorite dog. Many persons testifying about Jack Ruby's life said he treated his dogs as though they were his children. After he shot Oswald, his first concern was for Sheba. He asked police to attend to her. But he made no mention of money also in the car.

What about the pistol?

"Jack always carried a gun, for he sometimes had large sums of money. That morning, he had $2,200 in cash," said Gertz. "It was a weapon registered in 1960 with the police. He had been arrested twice before for carrying an unregistered gun."

Doctors have not said how long they think Ruby can hang on to life.

Jack Ruby's condition has been diagnosed as cancer spreading in the lymph node system. Doctors say urinary and radiation are out of the question and they have resorted to chemical treatment for the condition.

Coast Guard Will Begin Ice Breaking

Today marks the official opening of the 1966 ice-breaking season for the U.S. Coast Guard in the waters of the New York-New Jersey-Connecticut area.

Winter weather is now beginning to cause ice formations in varying degrees of intensity to interfere with the transportation of fuel and other essential goods by water through the harbors, rivers and bays throughout the Third Coast Guard District.

Coast Guard vessels will begin the task of keeping these channels open as necessary. An account of ice conditions will be broadcast daily by the New York Coast Guard Radio Station, Moriches, L. I., on medium frequency station 486 (Morse code) and orally by the Cape May, N. J., Coast Guard Station on 2670 kcs. These reports will be included as necessary on stations' regularly scheduled broadcasts.

The Joiners

News of Fraternal and Civic Organizations

A stated convocation of Mt. Herib Chapter, 75, RAM, will be held at Masonic Temple, 31 Albany Avenue, Wednesday at 8 p.m. This is the annual convocation of the chapter at which officers for the ensuing year will be elected and installed. Proposed amendments to the by-laws of which the companions were notified in their annual summons will also be voted upon. All companions are urged to attend.

The first globes made in the U.S. appeared in 1810.

Hunted Teener

Sprinkle stepped out and began firing at both officers. The trooper fell.

Blodgett, who was not hit, said Sprinkle and Collins fled on foot in opposite directions and he shot Sprinkle. "He fell dead in a drainage ditch alongside the highway," the deputy said.

Ernstes said Collins met him and his wife outside their home, holding a shotgun he had found inside. He was wearing some of Ernstes' clothes.

Prodded With Shotgun

The couple was ordered into the house, Ernstes said. When he refused Collins struck him with his fist, then prodded him with the shotgun.

"I think he was pretty nervous," Mrs. Ernstes said.

"His own clothes were wet and dirty," she added. "He did everything possible to help his appearance. He even scraped mud off his shoes."

Ernstes said Collins acted tough at first, but "finally came around after an hour. I pointed out the difference in our ages, and said to him, 'Surely you don't need a gun to defend yourself against us.'"

The youth then unloaded the shotgun and put it down, Ernstes said.

Mrs. Ernstes cooked bacon and eggs. "He ate well," she said.

Ernstes said the youth told him, "Listen, old man, you've treated me nice. Come dark, I'll slip away. You won't be the worse for it."

Different Kind Of Youth March

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Forty fraternity brothers completed a hike for charity to Pittsburgh Sunday night, bushed from a 65-mile march.

They turned over to Children's Hospital $1,513 collected from motorists on the two-day walk, the third year they had staged the march to help the hospital.

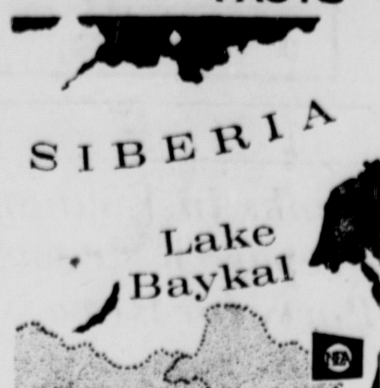

Miss Carol Chambers, an official of the hospital for Crippled Children, said, "They were dead. Some of them were lying on the floor falling asleep on each other. I guess their feet were in pretty bad shape."

The students, members of Kappa Delta Rho fraternity at Indiana University of Pennsylvania, returned to the campus by car.

WORLD ALMANAC FACTS

Eastern Siberia's Lake Baykal is the world's deepest lake and one of the clearest. Dropping to a depth of 5,315 feet, Baykal is fed by 336 rivers but drained by only one, the Angara. More than 1,300 species of plant and animal life have been found in the water, according to The World Almanac. Recently, Russian conservationists have been worried that a proposed paper-pulp industry beside the lake may seriously pollute the water and kill the animal life.

Cowboys and Indians Join Forces in Vietnam Rodeo

By HUGH MULLIGAN
AP THANH LAM, South Vietnam (AP) — The paratroopers of the 173rd Airborne Brigade won't forget the big rodeo in War Zone D.

A battalion of the brigade's 560th Infantry, moving through rain forests 50 miles northeast of Saigon, happened onto a well-hidden Viet Cong camp at the edge of the Cay Gao rubber plantation.

Their normal search and clear routine was interrupted by mooing in the jungle. They found six critters tied to a shed just as Viet Cong shooting broke out.

Cows in Copters

As soon as the firefight broke off and the enemy fled into the jungles, it was decided that the animals — used for hauling carts of weapons and supplies in the V.C. camp — should be rounded up and taken by helicopter to a friendly village of Chinese Nuns.

The big fiesta of the bulls was on. It took a whole platoon from Charlie Company half a day to head off the critters at the pass and drive them to the landing zone. In the absence of bull whips, trail ponies and similar horse-ops gear, the paratroopers used web belts, rattan branches and ropes to make the doxies get along.

Weapons platoon drew the assignment of wrestling the bulls to the ground and tying them into cargo nets so they could be sling-loaded beneath the helicopters.

Those bulls were full of fight. The troopers tried to trip them, knock them down with football blocks, jump on their heads, pull their tails — anything to get them into the cargo slings.

Bull Wrestler

Spec. 4 James Blue of Dallas, who had done some rodeo riding down in Texas, got a hammer lock on one and wrestled it to earth. When Spec. 4 Dave Atkins of Houston attempted to saddle-bust one of the varmints by sitting between the horns, he was tossed for a 30-yard loss, and the runaway broke for freedom through the defense perimeter.

Spec. 4 Ronnie Stute of Overton, Nev., and a couple of other American Indians in the outfit joined the Texans in organizing a sort of seven-blocks-of-granite formation in which paratroopers fell en masse on the angry bulls' s soon as they could be brought down.

Cowboys and Indians

"If it wasn't for those Indians and Texans," conceded one novice rodeo performer, Spec. 4 Eddy Baggs of Jacksonville, Fla., "we never would have got those bulls out."

The 335th Helicopter Company, appropriately nicknamed "the cowboys," flattered in to airlift the moaning, groaning cargo off to waiting villagers of Bai Ham.

The Nuns immediately proclaimed a peace fiesta and demonstrated their enthusiasm by butchering two of the critters.

Lt. Larry J. Smith of Virginia Beach, Va., leader of the rodeo-qualified weapons platoon, summed up the paratroopers' moment of truth: "You expect to take a certain amount of bull in the Army, but this is a bit on the much side."

SIDE GLANCES

By GILL FOX

"I just discovered Milton Berle comes in three colors: Pink, light blue and chartreuse!"

Dear Heloise:

Almost all shift dresses come with a little sash to be used as a belt.

Instead of a belt, I prefer to use the sash for a headband, by just cutting it down to the correct size . . .

It is very attractive and dresses up even the most inexpensive shift.

Joan Calhoun

Now, Joan's idea is what I call "turning on the light."

Heloise

Dear Heloise:

For those whose car windows fog up:

I wonder if they know they can roll the windows down and then up again and if the felt fits correctly on the car window it will clean the fog from inside the window, thus allowing them to see out better?

It does . . . Try it and see.

Burt H.

Letter of Laughter

Dear Heloise:

I really sparked up some Heloise ingenuity recently and decided to use my grater to scrape burned toast.

It is easy, quick and no crumbs fly.

"It's the greatest." And I'm grateful for my grater. C. E. P.

Dear Heloise:

Ever get tired of children's constant questions such as: "How long before my birthday?" or "How many days left until Christmas?"

We solved this problem at our house by making paper chains, each link representing a day.

At bedtime each evening the children tear off the bottom link, and they can "see" how many days until some special event.

For Christmas we always use green links for the chain, with a red link for Christmas Eve. It's fun for the children to make their own chains.

Lakes Freighter Outfits to Join

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP)—The American Steamship Co. of Buffalo, operator of Great Lakes freighters, and the Oswego Steamship Corp. of New York City plan to merge, officials say.

American Steamship is affiliated with Boland & Cornelius Steamship Co., which was founded in 1907 and owns 13 self-unloading Great Lakes freighters.

Oswego's affiliates include Marine Transport Lines Inc., which owns and operates approximately 70 ocean-going cargo ships and tankers.

The amount of money involved in the transaction was not disclosed, but was believed to be between $25 and $30 million.

The merger, subject to approval of the stockholders of both companies, was announced jointly Saturday by officials of the two companies.

Oswego Steamship would be the surviving corporation, but would retain the American Steamship company name, management, personnel and operating organization.

Earliest Civilizations

Some of man's earliest civilizations rose in what is now Iraq. It was in this land that Sumeria, Assyria and Babylonia flourished, and the wheel, writing and the plow probably developed.

SPACE BEARINGS will be read by future astronauts in this flight director attitude indicator, a nine-pound cockpit instrument undergoing final assembly. The electronic ball displays the spacecraft's attitude in each of three axes—roll, pitch and yaw. Built by Honeywell's Aeronautical Division in Minneapolis, it should be serviceable for lunar missions some time before 1970.

GOP Party Heads Fight Over Site Of Atom Smasher

CHICAGO (AP) — Sen.-Elect Charles H. Percy, R - Ill., has taken exception to requests by New York State Republicans Gov. Rockefeller and U.S. Sen. Jacob Javits that President Johnson intervene in selection of a site for a $375-million atom smasher.

Rockefeller and Javits asked the President Saturday to overrule an Atomic Energy Commission decision to award the site to Weston, Ill. The New York Republicans have sought the project for Brookhaven, N.Y., on Long Island.

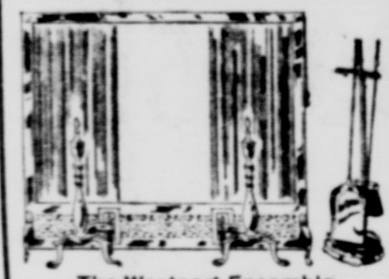

In a letter to Glenn T. Seaborg, AEC chairman, Percy said "since Weston was selected on the basis of objective appraisal, I can see no valid reason to reopen the matter."

The senator-elect also said he had discussed the situation with Republican Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois and indicated they would "stand shoulder to shoulder" to keep the project in Weston.

Expect Autopsy In Woman's Death Following Holdup

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP)—Police said today they expected an autopsy would be performed on the body of a woman who suffered injuries in a grocery-store holdup here.

The woman, Miss Julia Ross, 64, was found dead in her apartment Sunday night by her landlady. Police said she had been undergoing treatment for a heart ailment.

Miss Ross was hospitalized briefly with rib injuries after she and the store's owner, John Oiles, also 64, assaulted Friday night by two men who robbed the store, police said.

Her wallet, containing $4, was taken by the robbers, who also escaped with an undetermined amount of money from the store's cash register.

Miss Ross' address was 30 Richmond St. Oiles lives at 614 Clinton Ave. N. The store, Jack's Grocery, is at 551 Main St. E.

Reach Agreement On Canada Rails

MONTREAL (AP) — Railway workers and Canada's major railroads have reached agreement on terms of a wage contract after almost a year of negotiations and hearings.

Spokesmen for the 75,000 railway employs and the railroads announced the agreement Sunday night.

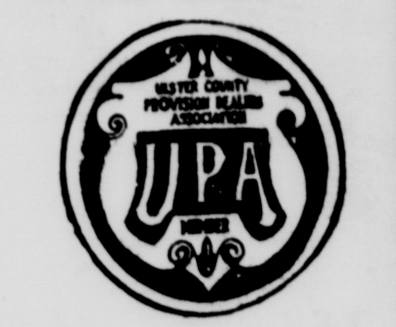

Union spokesmen said the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen and members of the non-operating unions — the workers involved — will be asked for a vote on the proposal.

Sources said the proposal called for wage increases of 24 to 28 per cent over three years, including an 18 per cent interim boost granted last September.

The U.S. Post Office Department never abbreviates the names of Alaska, Idaho, Iowa, Maine, Ohio and Utah.

Governors Want Voice in Running '68 LBJ Campaign

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democratic governors want President Johnson to let them help make the decisions on how to run the 1968 presidential campaign.

This was the nearly unanimous verdict of about a score of state executives who heaped their political woes on the absent President's shoulders at the National Governors' Conference in White Sulphur Springs, W.Va., last week.

One-Man Band

Privately, the governors complained to each other that politically Johnson is a one-man band who doesn't even invite them to sing in the background chorus.

There is likely to be some pointed conversation about reorganization of the Democratic National Committee at a projected post-Christmas meeting between the President and a delegation headed by Gov. Harold E. Hughes of Iowa.

Before the conference adjourned Saturday, some Democratic governors had softened their original blasts that the President was traveling the "Great Society" road too fast in a period when Vietnam war spending is skyrocketing. But nearly all said that if Johnson hopes to win in 1968 he is going to have to reorganize the party machinery.

The President's friend, Gov. John B. Connally of Texas, said in an interview the 25 Democratic governors will have to form the base of this campaign organization.

Replace Bailey

Gov. Otto Kerner of Illinois suggested there may be a "civil war" if National Chairman John M. Bailey isn't replaced.

Bailey has denied he is on the way out and said he expects to preside over a February meeting of the Committee. But some of the governors think Johnson may have other plans after he talks with the governors.

Gov. Richard J. Hughes of New Jersey, who said the governors were blaming the President for doing what he was elected to do, cautioned his colleagues not to "push the panic button" because the party suffered setbacks in the November election.

He predicted, as did Kerner, that Johnson will be re-elected.

If Johnson seeks a second term, most Democratic governors expect Michigan Gov. George Romney to be his opponent. They generally look upon Romney as a much more dangerous foe than former Vice President Richard M. Nixon or any other potential GOP nominee.

Bobcats Inducted In Dual Meeting

The annual combined November and December Pack meeting was held in the assembly room of the Evangelical Lutheran Church, sponsors of Pack 9. The Webelos Den directed by Harold Burger, Webelos leader, presented colors and led the capacity audience in the Pledge of Allegiance. Webelos Cubs were Douglas Rockwell, Daniel Bittner III, Thomas McGarry, Edward Fox and Alan Lenza.

A tribute to Den Mothers was given by Den 1, Den Mother, Mrs. Marion Rockwell, as an opening ceremony. Participating were: Paul Rockwell, Jeffrey Berryann, George Owens, Daniel Deyo, Ronald Zimmerman, Gregory Roland and Joseph Wolff.

A Pinewood Derby will be held at the January Pack meeting. An explanation of parts and the assembling of the Derby car was given by the Cubmaster. Our Blue and Gold dinner held in February promises to be a gala program. Plans are being formulated now for the yearly tribute to scouting.

Pack 9 was co-winner at Cub-O-Lympics winning two first and two second places. Ribbons were given to each Cub in the winning events by Mrs. Marion Blank-schan, committee woman, who was leader at the events in the absence of the Cubmaster and assistants. First place in the three-legged race won by Jeffrey and Daniel Deyo. First place in the Kangaroo Race winners were Stephen Krause, Thomas Krause, Ronald Zimmerman, Robert Karaffa, George Owens and Paul Rockwell. Winning second place in the Hop-Step-Jump event was Stephen Krause. Second place in the Potato Race was won by Daniel Deyo, Jeffrey Berryann, Stuart Ericson, Robert Karaffa, George Owens, Paul Rockwell. All boys were congratulated and thanked for their cooperation with the Den Mothers who assisted Mrs. Blank-schan. They are Mrs. Marion Rockwell, Mrs. Miriam Erickson and Mrs. Christine Coissons.

George Deyo presented the Pack with two plaques, which he made of the scout insignia and Pack 9 on it, one to be presented for monthly Pack meeting attendance, and a large one for the best attendance of the year.

Christmas Skit

A skit entitled Santa's Sorry Plight, was pantomimed by Den 2. Gregory Roland as Santa, Ronald Zimmerman as Mrs. Claus and Elves were: Monte Kramer, Thomas Krause, Joseph Wolff, Robert Karaffa. Voices were: Mrs. Claus, Mrs. Katryna Krause, Den Mother; Santa, Den Chief David Krause, and Stephen Krause spoke for the elves. Assisting with the props were Den Chiefs Robert Hunger and Richard Rockwell.

Cubmaster Blank-schan introduced the following visitors and new Cub families: Mrs. Virginia Burger and daughters Nancy and Betty Ann; Mrs. Beatrice Albrecht, Frank Northcutt, Michael Buck, Robert Dunkun, Mrs. Elizabeth Policastro with Cub son Albert, Mrs. Russell Mottsey with son Michael and Cub son Russell, Mrs. Howard Hutton and Cub sons Lawrence and John, Mr. and Mrs. Willi Mills and son Darrel, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Zygmunt and daughter Karen and Cub son Timothy, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Lukas with Cub sons Ameous and Jeffrey.

Note Awards

Awards were given to Den 2 Den Mother Mrs. Katryna Krause, Robert Karaffa advanced to Wolf, Stephen Krause received a silver arrow under Bear, Thomas Krause a silver arrow under Wolf, Ronald Zimmerman a one-year pin. Den 3 has Michael Crowley receiving a recruiter slide, Webelos Den has Alan Lenza receiving a 3-year pin.

The Webelos Den: Alan Lenza, Edward Fox, Thomas McGarry, Daniel Bittner III, and Douglas Rockwell wearing Indian head bands entered the darkened assembly room with Indian whoops and yells encircled the new Bobcats and their parents. Assistant Cubmaster Joseph Karaffa standing in the center of the double circle explained the seven virtues of Cubbing. The Bobcats repeated the Cub Scout Promise and were branded by Webelos leader Harold Burger and Cubmaster Blank-schan, as Boy Scouts of America and welcomed into Pack 9. The new Bobcats are Ameous and Jeffrey Lukas, Albert Policastro, Russell Mottsey, John and Lawrence Hutton, Timothy Zygmunt and John Van Brink who is a transferee from Pack No. 1, Brewster.

A candle was given to all Cubs who then formed a huge candle. Cubmaster Theodore Blank-schan as Akela held a large candle and as he lit his candle, which represented the Spirit of Cubbing, and passed his light on to the Assistant Cubmasters, Den Mothers, Den Chiefs and Cub Scouts, so the spirit of Cubbing goes from leaders to the newest recruit. The Cubmaster thanked all for their cooperation and support in the past year and pledged to do his best and asked for their help in 1967. He wished all season's greetings and a Happy New Year.

Santa Gives Gifts
The Cubs came forward and formed a double circle of light for Santa's arrival. He presented the Cubs with Derby Kits and each Cub and child with a box of candy.

Judges after two attempts gave a tie vote as all four den exhibits on space were excellent. The attendance award went to Den 2.

Den 4, Den Mother Mrs. Miriam Erickson presented a closing ceremony on space. Each Cub held a space capsule and gave a summation on planets and stars in space. Taking part were Stuart Erickson, John and Lawrence Hutton, John McGraunce, Michael Crowley, John Buch, Darrell Mills and Den Chief, David Crispell.

Refreshments were served by Den 3, Den Mother Mrs. Christine Coissons. Den Chiefs assisted with Den Dads on clean-up detail.

Recap of U. N. Session

Thaw Signs Offset By Other Problems

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—Problems of black Africa dominated this year's sessions of the General Assembly, now in its final hours, but the continuing war in Vietnam cast a pall over the session.

Apprehension over the future in Southeast Asia was offset somewhat by signs of a thaw in relations between the United States and the Soviet Union and by their attempts to reach a measure of agreement on disarmament.

Ringed Vote for Thant

The mounting clamor for world peace resulted in a ringing vote of confidence for U Thant and a move to broaden the role of the secretary-general in dealing with the formidable obstacles blocking the path to international understanding.

As the session opened, the 38-nation African group cut in on the traditional policy debate to protest the World Court's refusal to rule on the merits of the South-West Africa case. For four weeks, the assembly hall echoed with charges that the white supremacist government of South Africa had violated its mandate over South-West Africa by introducing race segregation there.

In an unprecedented act of reprisal, the Africans mustered enough votes in the assembly's Budgetary Committee to deny the World Court a supplementary appropriation of $72,500 to meet expenses of the South-West Africa case.

After bringing South Africa's policies under blistering attack in separate committee debates on trusteeship, racial discrimination and apartheid or race segregation, the group turned its attention to Portugal and Rhodesia.

Poses Threat to Force

The Africans put through a resolution posing the threat of British force against the rebel Rhodesian regime of Prime Minister Ian Smith. The proposal meant little, however, since Britain foreswore military measures.

The Africans then won assembly approval of a demand that Portugal's partners in the Atlantic alliance stop selling arms allegedly used to control Lisbon's African territories. Most of the NATO nations voted against it.

While the Africans dominated the debates, attention was diverted by an act of U.S.-Soviet cooperation that could have a far-reaching effect on the disarmament issue.

The two superpowers agreed on a treaty that would prevent military exploitation of the moon and other celestial bodies and would ban weapons of mass destruction from outer space.

During the session, Soviet-bloc speakers echoed the old cold-war phrases, and the United States answered in kind. But both sides appeared in some cases to be acting more from practice than from conviction.

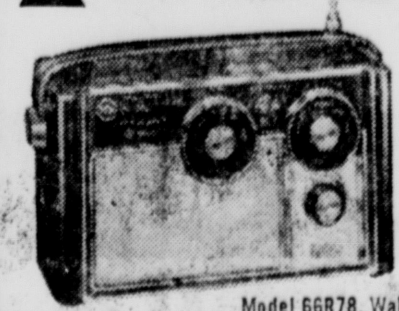

Toward the end of the session, U Thant finally announced the decision most delegates had anticipated—to stay on as secretary-general for another five-year term.

The United States won its perennial battle to bar Red China from the United Nations by a margin 11 votes higher than the tally the previous year. There was a move among members to treat both Chinas in the world forum, despite insistence by both regimes that they would accept no such formula.

Named at Hercules

Charles A. Grant has been appointed general manager of the Fibers and Film Department of Hercules Incorporated. The appointment was announced by Paul L. Johnstone, general manager of the department. Grant has been manager of the Film Division of this department since December, 1965. Hercules' local plant is at Port Ewen. Grant will, in his new post, join Desmond L. Farrell, who was named assistant general manager of the department in April, 1964.

Jersey Editor Is Killed in Crash On 55th Birthday

ORADELL, N. J. (AP)—George R. Cory, assistant news editor of The Record of Hackensack and a long-time newspaperman, was killed in a car accident on his 55th birthday.

Cory died early Sunday after his car ran off Kinderkamack Road, ripped down 30 feet of fencing and slammed into a building. He was pronounced dead on arrival at Pascack Valley Hospital in Westwood.

Born in New York, Cory lived most of his early life in Oradell. He obtained his first newspaper job on the old Brooklyn Eagle shortly after being graduated from Union College, Schenectay, New York.

After completing service in the field artillery during World War II, he worked for the now-defunct Paris edition of the New York Post as assistant news editor.

He also worked for the Gazette of Phoenix, Ariz., and Courier-Journal of Louisville, Ky. He left the latter paper in 1953 to take over the George Cory Lumber Co., Kamiah, Idaho.

Eight years later he returned to the east as a copy editor at the Record. He had been appointed news editor last March.

He is survived by his widow, the former Janet E. McCracken; his mother, Alice and brother, Joseph W. The latter two live in Ramsey.

Burial at George Washington Memorial Park, Paramus, will follow services at 11 a.m. Wednesday at Halsey Funeral Home, Westwood.

He lived at 15 Spring Valley Road, Park Ridge.

Dear Abby . . .

Far Better to Give Than to Receive

Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Now that Christmas is nearly here, I want to air something that has irritated me for a long time.

It's people who don't send Christmas gifts anymore. Instead they send you a tacky card informing you that "a gift in your name" has been sent to THEIR favorite charity. That way they don't have to bother shopping for Christmas gifts, and all their "gifts" are listed as a deductible expense on their tax return. Pretty cute, if you ask me.

"WISE" IN NEW HAVEN
DEAR WISE: Sorry, but I disagree. I think one of the more civilized practices of recent years is donating to charity instead of sending extravagant gifts to people who already have more than they need.

Knowing that a contribution to a worthy cause had been made in my name would be "gift" enough for me. He who takes but never gives may last for years, but never lives.

DEAR ABBY: Seven years ago I did a terrible thing. I had an affair with a man. His wife sued him for divorce, but they went back together again, thank God.

My wonderful husband forgave me, and we moved out of town. I have found God now and leading a good life.

I am a teacher's aid at school. When school started last fall I found out that the wife of the man I had the affair with is our student counselor. She can ruin my whole life by telling the other teachers about my past.

Should we move again? The dear Lord knows I have suffered enough for my sins. I am getting very nervous over this. Please answer soon.

DESPERATE

DEAR DESPERATE: Hands off the panic button. Stay where you are for the present. In all probability she will not disclose your past because of her husband's role in it. Forget it and continue to lead the good life.

DEAR ABBY: We have some friends whose teen-aged son was killed recently. Wanting to be of some help, I fried three chickens, wrapped them in aluminum foil and sent them to their home in a large cardboard box. I thought that poor mother had enough on her mind without worrying about returning a fancy platter or tray.

A friend told me that I shouldn't have sent the chicken over that way—that it looked like I didn't "trust" the family to return my platter. Was I wrong?

WONDERING
DEAR WONDERING: In my book you were extremely considerate to have sent the chicken in a disposable container. (Others could learn from you.) But I am wondering what kind of "friend" would be so unkind as to plant such a preposterous notion in your mind?

CONFIDENTIAL TO PAMELA P.—wherever you are. Please contact your mother to let her know that you are well. She is sick with worry. No questions will be asked.

Troubled? Write to Abby, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Cal., 90069. For a personal reply, inclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

An Economic Anachronism
The financial statistics of America are staggering. Right now, commercial bank deposits, savings-and-loan money, mutual savings bank deposits and currency in circulation total more than $536,000,000,000. In addition, potential money resident in the floating debt of the United States (that which is due in a year) is more than $100,000,000,000.

Twenty-five years ago at this time, the federal debt was $38,000,000,000. As this is written, it is more than $326,000,000,000. The ceiling on the federal debt is $330,000,000,000 and very soon it is probable that Congress will move the ceiling higher.

Thus, in 25 years (about 9,125 days) the average daily growth of the federal debt has been $29,000,000—more than one million dollars an hour, night and day, Sundays and holidays.

The banking system in America has been in the very center of the enormous growth of the federal debt and of money supplies. When the Federal Reserve system was organized and the 12 Federal Reserve Banks were opened, the aim was to make America more able to supply the required amount of dollars to support properly her trade and commerce.

Today, most investors who are needlessly selling sound stocks for deteriorating dollars (a frequent theme of this column), fail to heed what is happening to our currency.

America is off the gold standard. And silver is fast disappearing from circulation. Ten-cent and twenty-five cent coins no longer have any silver in them. And half-dollars and dollars are virtually out of circulation.

In normal times, common stock prices are based on earnings and dividends. But these are not normal times.

If investors better understood the significance of the growing federal debt and its monetization throughout the commercial banking system and the Federal Reserve Banks, they would buy sound common stocks and not sell them.

Piling up cash balances in the face of the growing inflation is an economic anachronism.

Here, for instance, is a frightened investor: He sees ghosts in every corner. His rent has been raised $50 a month. His New York City income tax will cost him several thousand dollars a year. His cook is demanding $50 a month more in wages. Meals at his favorite club have become more expensive. His church is having trouble in balancing its budget and he has been asked to give $2,000 to meet the 1966 budget.

What does he do? Just what he shouldn't: sell a lot of good stocks. And today, with bank balances in high five figures, he asks me what he should do with his money.

Today, total commercial bank deposits total more than $328,000,000,000. Twenty-five years ago, they were $71,000,000,000. Billions upon billions of this $328 billion figure represent uncertain, frightened money.

Stock prices will probably go lower. The negative psychology in the marketplace drives investors to sell when they should buy. And unless and until this negative factor abates, one can be sure that stock prices will not advance.

In December, 1966, America is experiencing an economic anachronism. Selling is far too prevalent.

Continue Search For $26,960 Taken In Bank Holdup

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP)—City police and FBI agents continued their search for $26,960 taken in a Dec. 9 bank holdup following the arrest of three men on robbery charges.

Federal agents and city policemen arrested the trio in different east side apartments Saturday. They did not resist, police said.

Buffalo Men Charged

A federal arrest warrant also charges a fourth man, still being sought, with robbing a branch of the Manufacturers & Traders Trust Co.

Charged with first-degree robbery and violation of the Federal bank - robbery law were Robert A. Huitt, 23, unemployed and Harry Stokes, 25, both of Buffalo.

The third man, Robert M. Ricks, 21, also of Buffalo, was charged with conspiracy to violate the federal bank - robbery law and conspiracy to commit robbery under state law.

Police accused Ricks of helping to plan the robbery and Stokes of driving the getaway car. Huitt and the fourth man went into the bank for the robbery, police charged.

The three were arraigned before U.S. Commissioner Edmund F. Maxwell, who set bail at $25,000 each for Huitt and Stokes and $10,000 for Ricks.

The trio was taken to police headquarters to be booked on the state charges. They were sent to Erie County jail pending their arraignment in City Court. Neil Welch, special agent in charge of the Buffalo FBI office, said the three men may be connected with a holdup gang operating in "both the east and west side of the city."

Give Account of Heist

Detectives gave this account of the robbery:

Two men walked into the bank without alarming anyone except the two tellers from whom the money was taken.

One man positioned himself at a counter, while the other walked up to tellers Mrs. Mildred Shephard and Miss Carol Beaudoin, 19 and gave them a white cloth bag to fill.

The man handed Mrs. Shephard a note that read:

"This is a holdup. Give me the money and no change."

He then approached Miss Beaudoin and repeated his command, warning her not to press the alarm because "there's someone outside who will shoot you."

The man walked over to his companion, tapped him on the shoulder and both fled in an automobile.

The holdup was the first of two bank robberies in four days. A bandit robbed an east side branch of the Marine Midland Trust Company of Western New York Dec. 12 and escaped with $1,603. He also handed a teller a similar note.

"TEDDY BEAR"

The popular "Teddy Bear" got its name from U. S. President Theodore Roosevelt in 1902. At that time, President Roosevelt went on a hunting trip, but refused to shoot a small bear that wandered around the camp. Newspapers released the story and a manufacturer of toy rag bears capitalized on it by naming his product "Teddy bears."

Tillson Man Is Lauded by Rocky For GOP Service

A lifelong resident of Tillson who will be 97 on Jan. 3 has received a letter of congratulations from Governor Nelson A. Rockefeller.

Walter Keator was commended by the Governor for his activities with the Republican Party over a 75 year span. He was Republican committeeman in the Town of Rosendale for many years and served 25 years as assessor. His father, Nathan Keator, was an assemblyman from this district.

Mr. Keator was born on the farm which is now Tillson Estates. The Keator homestead was on the site now occupied by the home of John DeLora Sr. By occupation, Mr. Keator was a carpenter and built many of the homes in this vicinity.

Your correspondent has had the pleasure of visiting Mr. and Mrs. Keator several times at their home which is located just east of the present Tillson School and was told many interesting historical events of this area. As a boy Mr. Keator worked on his father's farm where a pair of horses and a pair of oxen were kept to do the farm work.

High taxes were discussed and he mentioned when he was a very small boy his mother pinned eight dollars in an envelope in his pocket and sent him to pay the local taxes on the farm of eighty acres and the family thought that taxes were very high.

Mr. Keator mentioned that in those days carpenters did not go to lumber yards for building materials but went to local saw mills which were plentiful and run by water power, later by steam.

Mr. Keator was very surprised when he received the following letter from Governor Rockefeller. "I was most interested and also grateful to learn that on November eighth last, you had cast your 75th Republican ballot. This is certainly a record which merits appreciation by me and by all other members of the Republican Party in the Empire State."

"Your activities as a committeeman and for twenty five years as an assessor likewise deserve acclaim."

"My very best wishes to you."

The tree is a 65-foot red fir from the Sierra Nevada Mountains and is estimated to be 80 years old. Note Underground Atomic Explosion In Soviet Russia

WASHINGTON (AP) — Seismic signals originating from the central Soviet Union equivalent to a nuclear blast in the low-intermediate range have been recorded by the Atomic Energy Commission, indicating another Soviet underground nuclear test.

The seismology institution at Uppsala, Sweden, however, reported recording a disturbance larger than an Oct. 27 Soviet test blast — which the AEC said at that time was the largest underground test yet.

An AEC spokesman, questioned about the conflicting reports, said the AEC was certain Sunday's disturbance was in the low to intermediate force range. The spokesman said that means an equivalent of 20,000 tons of TNT.

The AEC had put the Oct. 27 blast at near one million tons of TNT. The United States says that none of its underground tests in Nevada have been of more than half the force of the big Soviet shot.

Treated for Injuries

Catherine E. Gilligan, 37, of 7 Schuyler Court, involved in a car-truck mishap at Main and Fair Streets early Saturday afternoon, was treated at the Benedictine Hospital for knee and hand injuries. Police said the trailer truck was driven by James L. Passmore, 42, of Macon, Ga. Officer Gerald Tierney investigated.

First Since Nik Brezhnev Given Praise, Honors

MOSCOW (AP) — Leonid I. Brezhnev received praise and honors today given no Soviet leader since the fall of Nikita Khrushchev 26 months ago.

The Kremlin's emphasis on collective leadership since the fall of Khrushchev was dropped for Brezhnev's 60th birthday today. The general secretary of the Soviet Communist party was accorded honors far exceeding those usual even for a top official.

Normally only Pravda, the Soviet Communist party paper, is issued Monday. But all national newspapers published special editions with a large portrait of Brezhnev in the center of the front page.

All papers also carried a glowing tribute to Brezhnev signed by the party's ruling Central Committee, the government Council of Ministers and the Presidium of the Supreme Soviet.

They also published the text of the decree awarding Brezhnev the country's highest honor, the title Hero of the Soviet Union, which carries with it the Order of Lenin and a gold star medal.

Brezhnev's portrait was shown on television for five minutes Sunday night as the announcement of the award and a congratulatory message were read. This was unprecedented in the post-Khrushchev era.

The present Soviet command has stressed collective rule in contrast to the personality cults of Khrushchev and Stalin. In

Johnson Wrestles With Space and Agriculture Fund

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — President Johnson wrestles with the big space and agriculture budgets today as he swings into a full schedule of official conferences at his Texas ranch.

Summoned to the President's home near Johnson City, 65 miles west of here, were Budget Director Charles L. Schultz, Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman and Director James E. Webb of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration.

Mac Due Tuesday

For the current year, Johnson proposed budgets of nearly $7 billion for agriculture and $5.1 billion for NASA.

The budget the President now is working on, for presentation to Congress next month, covers the 12 months starting July 1.

Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara will be at the ranch Tuesday, presumably to help nail down some of the final details of the new defense budget, expected to total nearly $70 billion.

The total budget will likely run around $135 billion.

The budget, however, is just one of two major documents Johnson is preparing for Congress. The other is his State of the Union message — a broad outline of his goals and plans for the country's future.

Faces Tax Decision

Johnson also faces in the next few weeks a decision on whether to increase taxes. Some economists believe a tax hike is needed now to bring federal income and spending into closer balance and to dampen inflationary pressures.

Others, however, feel an increase in taxes now, when some economic indicators are turning mushy, would only promote a recession.

Other problems facing the President include the future of his "Great Society" programs, including social welfare and other domestic efforts; the question of the military draft and future defense projects.

Average price increases for two staple foods this year netted farmers 2.1 cents on a half gallon of milk and .6 cents on a loaf of bread, according to a Federal Trade Commission study. Processing and retailing accounted for the rest of the increases.

recent weeks, however, Brezhnev has been singled out as the top man with praise in speeches by other leaders.

The party chief has always been the top man in the Soviet Union since the party gives orders to the government.

Gotham to Ask Convention for More Home Rule

NEW YORK (AP) — The Republican city administration and Democratic city councilmen say they will ask the State Constitutional Convention for more home rule, particularly over tax and fiscal policies.

There are indications that Mayor John V. Lindsay's administration and the Democratic majority of the City Council may work together on some parts of a program for consideration at next April's convention.

In a separate interview Sunday Deputy Mayor Robert W. Sweet and David Ross, council majority leader, said they would press for greater city control over local taxes in the new constitution.

The Lindsay administration, Sweet said, will seek "consideration" of the city debt limit. It will also ask for changes in the "uses to which city credit could be put," he said.

The protocols, he said, would be designed "to strengthen the city's taxing powers."

Ross said in an interview: "Of course I feel more qualified than an assemblyman Update to say what taxes New York City should have."

He declined to detail what the Democrats would ask for in order to get a "substantial increase in home rule." He said the Democrats are "working out techniques to present a program" to the convention on behalf of the city.

Ross raised the possibility of cooperation with the Lindsay administration. "I'm sure we'll agree on a number of things and on these we'll probably work together."

Sweet was Lindsay's executive assistant until four days ago. Reported, he was chosen for the new post because he had been able to work well with the council majority.

Sweet appeared on WNBC-TV's "Searchlight" program. Ross was interviewed after he appeared on WABC-TV's "Page One" program.

MT. MARION NEWS

MT. MARION — The Mt. Marion-Ruby Fire Company conducted a guided tour with Santa Claus and his helpers through Mt. Marion and Mt. Marion Park Sunday afternoon, distributing candy to all children along the route.

The Ladies Aid Circle held its Christmas party recently in the church hall. After the roast beef dinner gifts were exchanged. Christmas carols were sung and a social hour was held.

Jeanine Greco, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Greco, celebrated her second birthday Dec. 13 with a party.

Friday evening, Dec. 16, a covered-dish supper was held in the church hall sponsored by the Women's Guild for Christmas Service. A film entitled Time and Eternity was shown during the evening.

The Sunday school Christmas pageant was held Sunday 7:30 p. m. in the church. Christmas Eve candlelight service will be held Saturday, Dec. 24 at 8 p. m.

The Mt. Marion-Ruby Fire Company held a dinner at Elmer's Restaurant, Ruby, Tuesday evening.

The Christmas tree in the Plattkill Reformed Church was donated by Carlton King.

Bartender Slain

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP)—A 32-year-old bartender was shot to death early today during a quarrel in a downtown tavern where he worked, police said.

Shot fatally in the chest and in the head in the Club 291 was Nathaniel Jackson of Buffalo.

Detectives said they were seeking three brothers believed involved in the shooting.

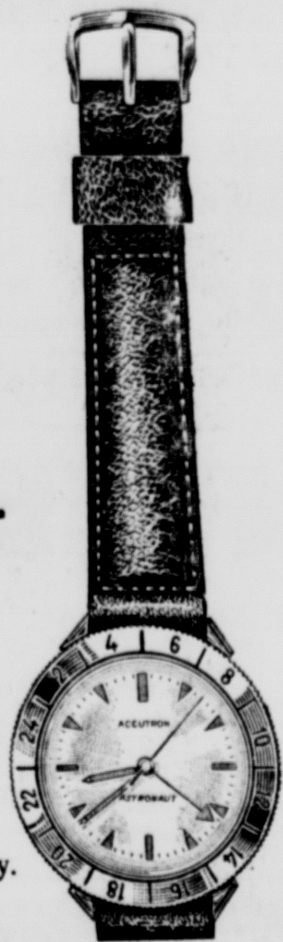

The cause of the argument was not known.

Jackson lived at 140 Verplanck St. The club is at 291 Genesee St.

Catching up with fashion, it has a zipped overblouse and an A-line skirt.

Two Cars Hit Tank Truck, Fire Kills at Least 5

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP) — An explosive collision of a fuel truck and two automobiles, followed by a roaring fire that engulfed six vehicles, left at least five dead today on one of Indianapolis' busiest streets.

Police Inspector John Foran said he believed the five bodies were all that would be found in the twisted, charred wrecks. Two persons reportedly were severely burned and removed to hospitals.

The semitrailer truck jackknifed and two autos crashed into the truck which instantly exploded in a gush of flame, Ralph Smith, 19, an eyewitness said.

The billowing fire engulfed the truck and five autos.

Traffic was backed up for miles.

Children from a nearby school swarmed around the blazing wreck, worrying police almost as much as the danger of exploding fuel tanks on the passenger cars.

Danger in the area persisted after firemen brought the fire under control. Thousands of gallons of blazing fuel had poured into a storm sewer. Smoke came from manhole covers almost a mile away.

Three of the dead apparently were a man, a woman and a young child in a station wagon.

One of the survivors was the tanker driver but he was reported near death at Marion County General Hospital with severe burns.

Says JFK Book Accuses Police, FBI of Neglect

NEW YORK (AP) — The New York Times said today William Manchester's book on President John F. Kennedy's assassination cites many instances of alleged neglect or incompetence by the FBI, Secret Service and Dallas police.

The Times quotes an unnamed publishing source who has read the manuscript as saying the book, "The Death of a President," cites the names of federal agents and local police and "has the quotes to back it up."

The source is quoted by the Times as saying that the book "shows that the FBI men were too busy looking for places in the parade" to provide proper protection to the president on Nov. 22, 1963.

The Times says the book is also reported to describe in detail the friction between the Kennedy family and President Johnson in the days following the assassination.

One dispute centered around the use of office space in the White House, the source is quoted as saying, and another over the date of President Johnson's address to a joint session of Congress.

Cite Paltz Driver, Refused Blood Test

Charles Langwick, 47, of Route 32, New Paltz, was cited Sunday night by State Trooper John Crodelle of Highland on a charge of driving a motor vehicle while intoxicated.

Trooper Edward Pulver said Crodelle stopped Langwick on Route 32 south of the village of New Paltz at 9 p. m. Pulver said the motorist refused to submit to a blood test and was taken before Justice of the Peace Rexford Schneider, Town of New Paltz.

Bail was fixed at $250 and Langwick was committed to the county jail until bail is posted.

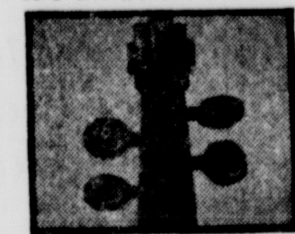

The case was adjourned until Friday. Trooper Crodelle checked motor vehicle records and as the result a charge of operating a car after his driver's license expired was lodged against the New Paltz man.

Doing The Right Thing

BY ELIZABETH L. POST

CLEVER WAY TO ENFORCE CURFEW

Dear Mrs. Post: We are the parents of a 16-year-old daughter. She has a "curfew" but we find we usually sit up and wait for her, leaving us exhausted the next day. Do you think it's necessary for us to do this? My husband says he couldn't go to sleep in any case until she's safely home.—Sleepless.

Dear Sleepless: I just recently learned of the best solution I've heard to this problem. The parents set an alarm clock about 20 minutes later than their daughter's curfew, and put it close to their bedroom door. They go to sleep at their usual bedtime and when their daughter comes in, she slips into their room and turns off the alarm. If it goes off, the parents know she is not home on time even allowing the extra 20 minutes for emergencies, and the father gets up and takes whatever steps he thinks are necessary to find her. This system lets them go to sleep without worrying, as they know that all is well unless the alarm goes off.

Paper Doilies Disintegrate

Dear Mrs. Post: I would like to know whether it is correct to put lace paper doilies under individual servings of ice cream. If not, when are they used?—June.

Dear Jane: Paper doilies are used under a whole cake, under eclairs or pastry, and often under hors d'oeuvres. I do not approve of putting them under ice cream because when it melts they become soggy and one can end up with bits of paper in each bite.

Who Walks With Bride?

Dear Mrs. Post: In a small house wedding, is it all right for the bride and groom to walk in together?—Martha King.

Dear Miss King: Certainly, especially if the bride has no male relative to walk with her. Even in a church wedding, that is preferable to the bride walking alone.

What is your most puzzling etiquette problem? To the sender of the most interesting question that we receive each week, we'll send a free copy of Emily Post's Etiquette, revised by Elizabeth L. Post. The question chosen, and its answer, will be published in this column every Friday. Send your question to Elizabeth L. $320,000 Rockefeller Foundation Grant To Ithaca Festival

The Rockefeller Foundation has awarded a $320,000 grant to the Festival at Ithaca—update cultural and educational center opening a repertory theatre in June, 1968.

The Rockefeller grant—$300,000 for implementation of artistic programs; $20,000 for development of educational programs—was announced by David C. Mandeville, board chairman of the Festival. The $300,000 portion is conditional on theatre construction.

The Festival, located in a 400-acre recreational area at the southern tip of Cayuga Lake, plans to construct facilities for performing and visual arts. Alan Schneider, director of the original Broadway productions of Edward Albee's plays, including "Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf?" "Tiny Alice" and the current hit "A Delicate Balance," serves as artistic director of the Festival theatre.

Governor Rockefeller has indicated that New York State will construct a 400-foot marina on the Festival site. The Governor has also said that his administration "is cooperating fully in a study of means to obtain additional financing needed" to complete the entire Festival arts and recreation complex. Over $12 million has been raised by the Festival towards construction of the $3.5 million repertory theatre.

Whipped Toppings for Desserts

Whipped topping on a dessert in recent times is not necessarily made from whipped heavy cream. Today whipped products can be made from cream or vegetable oil-based liquids in pressurized cans, dry vegetable oil-based mixes, evaporated milk, and non-fat dry milk as well as from the standard pasteurized heavy cream. Each of these varies in the cost, convenience, calorie content, and characteristics of the whipped product, says Louise M. Kakargo, Extension Home Economist.

Pasteurized heavy cream, with at least 36 per cent milk fat, has traditionally been used for whipping. Its primary advantage is its flavor which is not usually matched by the non-cream toppings.

Cold cream in a chilled bowl whips easily without other ingredients to form a product with a smooth, thick, glossy foam. Sugar and other flavorings may be added if desired. Whipped cream must be kept refrigerated and used soon, as liquid usually begins to drain within an hour. If heavy cream is kept in the refrigerator up to 48 hours, it will whip to a greater volume with greater stability than very fresh cream. However, it should then be used within a few days for best quality.

Whipped cream in pressurized cans was first introduced in 1947. Today vegetable oil-based toppings are also packaged in aerosols. These items are true convenience foods—you simply remove the can from the refrigerator, shake it, and release the whipped product.

The fluffy foam produced is not as stable as whipped heavy cream, because it isn't possible to have the hand beating which builds up fat particles until they become stiff. Because of lack of stability, the topping or cream should be released just before serving. It is impossible for the entire contents to be expelled from the pressurized cans; from 10 to 25 per cent of the contents remain in the cans after the pressure is exhausted. To counteract this, most companies over-fill their cans with enough liquid so that the net weight shown on the can should equal the dispensible contents. The cost of packaging and adding the propellant makes pressurized cans of cream and topping more expensive than other forms of whipped products.

Dry whipped topping mixes are mixed with milk and vanilla to form a very stable foam. They were first introduced about 15 years ago in answer to the need of bakers for a product with more stability than whipped cream. Their whipability is more uniform, batch to batch, than that of heavy cream; they resist "weeping" or collapsing; and they can be frozen and thawed without breakdown.

Undiluted evaporated milk can be whipped if it is very cold. The whipped product is not very stable and should be used as soon as possible. The stability of the foam may be increased by folding in an acid, such as lemon juice, after the milk is whipped or by the addition of softened unflavored gelatin before whipping.

Most packages of nonfat dry milk give directions for whipping. The foam produced is smooth and fine—different in texture from whipped cream. The whip should be used as soon as possible, but it may be stable for several hours. The cost and calorie count of this whipped topping are lower than for any other kind of whipped topping.

The decision of which product to buy may be based on the cost, convenience, calorie content, and characteristics of the whip as they affect the intended use. For example, the flavor of whipped heavy cream may be desired when generous dollops of the whip will be used all by itself as in strawberry shortcake. The lower cost and calories of a topping mix make it the choice when a large amount is to be incorporated into another mixture, such as frozen fruit salad. Or the convenience of a pressurized topping may be most important when just a touch of garnish is desired to dress up a gelatin dessert.

YWCA Directors Hold Annual Meeting; Reports Are Given

Financial reports, fund raising projects and new appointments were part of the agenda at the December meeting of the YWCA Board of Directors held at 209 Clinton Avenue, this city.

Mrs. Peter D. Corsones, finance chairman, reported in detail on the budget for next year and Mrs. Alfred J. Port, chairman of the annual YW Christmas Festival, stated the project was a success. Adult and junior groups in the YWCA participated in this popular fund raising venture.

Mrs. Samuel C. McCoubrey, board president, announced the appointment of Mrs. Henry Millonig of Kingston to the Council of Social Agencies. Mrs. Millonig will serve as official YWCA representative. The resignation of Mrs. Frederick F. Burnett from the Board was accepted with regret.

Miss Frances Maxwell, executive director, discussed the 1967 National Convention and announced that a copy of the book "Eight Women of the YWCA" has been received from Mrs. Laurence Rockefeller.

Miss M. Joan Freeman, Y-Teen director, reported several holiday parties are being planned by her groups. The teenagers are participating also in community service projects including carol singing in local nursing homes, making favors for local institutions and providing food baskets for the needy.

Devotions were read by Mrs. Herbert H. Reuner at the December board meeting. The reading was based on the theme, "Keeping Christmas Traditions Alive." Mrs. McCoubrey served Christmas punch and cookies.

Attending the meeting were the Mes. Othman Abu-Gheida, Peter D. Corsones, Harold F. Davis, Samuel C. McCoubrey, Robert B. Murray, Norman E. Nitschke, Herbert H. Reuner, Andrew Suoko, James A. Taub, John A. Warren and the Mes. Helen V. Bowen, Sally C. Gallagher, Kathryn L. Heavey, Agnes Scott Smith and Margaret L. Zeff.

The next meeting of the board is scheduled for January 16 at 7:45 p. m. in the YWCA, 209 Clinton Avenue, this city.

Linda Joyce Hartman, Peter H. Goldfarb Take Marriage Vows in Temple Emanuel

Miss Linda Joyce Hartman, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Hartman of 319 Albany Avenue, Kingston, exchanged marriage vows with Peter Howard Goldfarb, son of Dr. and Mrs. Saul Goldfarb of 222 Pearl Street, Kingston, on Sunday, Dec. 18, 1966 at 1 p. m. in Temple Emanuel, this city. Rabbi Jonathan Eichhorn officiated during the double ring wedding ceremony and Rabbi Harry Z. Schechtman of Congregation Ahavath Israel assisted. Gordon Bush was organist and traditional wedding selections were sung by June Pauker, soprano.

White chrysanthemums and gladioli decorated the church for the occasion and the pews were marked with satin ribbon.

Dr. Hartman escorted his daughter and gave her in marriage. She wore a white satin gown styled with a sheath skirt, scooped neckline, long sleeves and fitted bodice with appliques accenting the neckline and detachable train. A lace applied pillow held her shoulder length French illusion veil. She carried a cascade of gardenias with stephanotis.

Miss Susan Marie Hartman was maid of honor for her sister. She wore a powder blue velvet gown with elbow length sleeves and sheath skirt. She also wore a matching picture hat and carried a cascade of pale yellow carnations with miniature yellow roses.

Bridesmaids were Miss Edith G. Lang of Accord, cousin of the bride; Miss Pauline Heaton of Elizabeth, N. J.; Miss E. Sandra Castiglione of Kingston; Miss Lynn Josephson, Kingston; Miss Phyllis Klein, Kingston; Miss Mary St. Denis of Lake Katrine. Their gowns and picture hats of royal blue velvet were identical in style to that worn by the honor attendant. They carried cascades of miniature and large powder blue carnations.

Ned Goldfarb of Nashville, Tenn., served as best man for his brother. Ushers were Master Robert Besdesky of Walden, N. Y., cousin of the bride; Charles Goldfarb of Kingston, Robert Ross of Bridgeport, Conn. Michael Schackner of Poughkeepsie, cousins of the bridegroom; and Henry Bean of Philadelphia, Pa.

A reception for 300 guests was given at the Governor Clinton Hotel after the wedding ceremony.

The bride is a graduate of Kingston High School and is a junior at Skidmore College, Saratoga Springs. She is a language major.

The bridegroom, an alumnus of Kingston High School, is a senior at Yale University, New Haven, Conn.

For her wedding trip to New Hampshire, the bride wore a corsage of white gardenias.

Art Students League Schedules Exhibit Of Keen Paintings

Local area artists and members of art clubs will be interested to know that a one man exhibition of paintings and drawings by Wong Keen, winner of Edward G. McDowell Scholarship for 1965, is scheduled for the Art Students League Gallery, January 9-21 in New York. The League maintains a summer school in Woodstock also. The New York gallery is at 215 W. 57th Street.

Wong Keen is a young painter of Chinese ancestry, born and educated in Singapore. From 1956 to 1960 he studied with the noted Chinese painter Chen Wen Hsi, and had a one man show at the National Library of Singapore. He came to the United States on a student visa in 1961. From then until 1965 he studied at the Art Students League with Sidney Gross, Vac-lav Vytlacil and Morris Kantor.

Wong Keen works as an Abstract Expressionist. Most of his paintings have something to do with the human figure. Although he belongs more to the West than to the East, the present exhibition includes some ink-wash works suggesting traditional Sumi as well as the influences of the modern Chinese Chi Pai Shi and the Ching dynasty painter Chu Tai. And there are some scrolls with Chinese writing.

Wong Keen won the McDowell Traveling Scholarship (open to unmarried League students) in 1955. The funds from the scholarship made possible a tour of European art centers via the Orient—he visited Singapore, Bombay, Karachi, Egypt, Athens on the way.

Wong Keen has had three one man shows before this: at the Bridge and the Western Galleries in New York, at the St. Martins School of Art, London—not to mention a show in Singapore mentioned above.

Ulster Community Cagers Defeat Kingsborough, 97-92

Chando Clinches 5th Victory With Late Foul Shots

Ulster Community College opened with a 24-11 first half lead but then had to fight to nip the visitors, 97-92, in a thriller Saturday at the Municipal Auditorium.

In recording their fifth win in six starts, coach Mike Perry's flashy cagers shot 51 per cent from the floor, getting 38 baskets in 74 attempts. They needed every shot to turn back the high scoring visitors for only the second time in seven tilts this year.

After holding a 48-43 at the interim, the Senators remained in front until the 3:04 mark of the second half when a bucket by high scoring Frank Irvin sent the losers ahead, 86-85.

Chando Clinches It
The lead exchanged hands several times and with 1:10 to play, Ulster was on top by a point, 93-92. The losers missed on a 1 and 1 situation and both Star Henderson and Rod Chando of the Senators failed on foul attempts.

Chando, who came off the bench to score 10 points and play a solid floor game, put this one out of reach with four straight successes from the foul line.

If Ulster had failed to come out on top, lack of rebounding would have been the chief reason. The visitors dominated the backboards 59-33.

Bill Zilliox turned in his finest performance of the season to score 27 points for the senators. Ron Lindsay added 23 and starred on defense with four steals. Captain Brad Meyer was held

Buffalo Ready to Meet Kansas City Chiefs

A MEETING OF THE MINDS is how to describe the union of Bart Starr, left, as quarterback of the Green Bay Packers and Vince Lombardi as coach. Lombardi formulates the strategy and Starr is his tune-in emissary who transfers it to the field of action.

Green Day Closes With Win; Colts, Eagles Clinch 2nd

By DICK COUCH

Vince Lombardi hopes his football season lasts another month. So does Tom Landry. But Gerard Bergman may have just about enough for one year.

While Lombardi's Green Bay Packers and Landry's Dallas Cowboys looked forward today to their National Football League championship date Jan. 1 and a berth in the Super Bowl 2 weeks later, Bergman looked back on the most harrowing five minutes of his NFL officiating career.

San Francisco fans, angered by a wave of penalties in the 49ers' 30-14 loss to Baltimore Sunday, took it out on the officials — with Head Linesman Bergman the primary target — in the closing minutes.

First, a woman fan dashed from the stands, lifted the linesman's penalty handkerchief from his back pocket and raced away. Then, after the officials ended the game 30 seconds early while fans pulled down one of the goal posts and swarmed over the field, Bergman was pelted with whisky bottles and knocked dizzy as he made his way to the dressing rooms.

Two Baltimore players and another official finally helped Bergman reach his quarters after he had been struck on the head twice by bottles.

There were 12 penalties called against the 49ers and nine against the Colts — for a total of 192 yards in the fiercely played game for second place in the Western Conference. Four touchdown passes by Johnny Unitas won it for the Colts, who met Philadelphia in the NFL Playoff Bowl at Miami Jan. 8.

Cowboys Struggle
Meanwhile, the Cowboys, who clinched the Eastern Conference title Saturday when Cleveland eliminated St. Louis 38-10, struggled to a 17-7 victory over New York and the Packers, who nailed the Western crown a week ago, held off Los Angeles 27-23.

The Eagles earned the Eastern Conference berth in the Playoff Bowl by outscoring Washington 37-28 to finish in a second-place tie with Cleveland. They'll go to Miami because the Browns were there more recently — in January, 1964.

Elsewhere, Gale Sayers returned the opening kickoff 90 yards for a touchdown and then shredded Minnesota's defense for 197 rushing yards as Chicago drubbed the Vikings 41-28 and Bill Nelsen passed for 344 yards and two touchdowns in Pittsburgh's 57-33 romp over Atlanta.

St. Mary's Tyros Top Wappers
St. Mary's Tyros jumped to a 20-4 quarter lead and went on to rout St. Mary's of Wappingers, 43-27, in a CYO basketball game at the MJM Gym.

Eight St. Mary's players figured in the scoring as Joe Reilly led with 9 points and Jim Ferraro and Bill Haber hit 8 apiece.

The score:
St. Mary's, Kingston (43) — Jim Ferraro 8, C. Belser, J. Reilly 9, G. Williams 6, T. Lindsey 7, J. Haber 5, B. Haber 8, M. Berkowski, T. Yonia 3, G. Norton, R. Vertells 2, D. Kieran, D. Wenzel, J. Baraugh, Wappingers (27) — M. Wood, S. Kerrins 8, McNamara 2, L. Dimon 8, Lippert 7, H. Freer 2, Ciccone, Aiello, Cordascio, Andrews, Barraca.

Sports Briefs
NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP) — Yale's Don Schollander, winner of four gold medals in the 1964 Olympics, wasted little time in celebrating his election to this year's AAU All-America swimming team.

Named to the team during the weekend, Schollander went out and set a Yale record in winning the 1,000-yard free style in 10:34.9 and also taking the 500-yard event in 4:50.4 in leading the Elis to a 71-33 victory over North Carolina State Saturday.

Clinches AFL Eastern Title With 38-21 Win

By MIKE RATHET

Associated Press Sports Writer

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP) — The Buffalo Bills, who two days ago faced a third down and 10 situation in defense of their American Football League crown, have made the key first down — but not without the knowledge that from here on in there will be no outside assistance.

"We're going to have to be sharper than we have been to beat Kansas City," Coach Joe Collier admitted after Sunday's 38-21 victory over Denver brought the Bills their third straight Eastern Division title.

"Kansas City's got a tough club — a well-rounded club.

"They're one of the top clubs in the league offensively and defensively and they have good special teams. We played one of our best games when we beat them in Kansas City — and that's what it'll take to beat 'em again."

Help From Jets
The Bills did not play one of their best games against the Broncos despite the score. And before even getting the final shot at the title they needed an 11th hour reprieve provided by the New York Jets.

The Jets knocked off front-running Boston 38-28 Saturday and left the Patriots with an 8-4 record. That gave the Bills an opportunity to clinch their third straight title with a 9-4 record if Denver would cooperate.

While the Bills could be faulted for their sputtering attack, not one could fault the Broncos for their cooperation.

Playing their final game under Coach Ray Malavasi, the Broncos gave the Bills as many assists as Oscar Robertson gets on a good night. They lost the ball three times on interceptions, gave it away twice on fumbles and chipped in with a short punt and an aborted on-side kick attempt.

That was enough for the Bills, who spread their scoring among six men as they moved into the AFL championship game against the Chiefs here on Jan. 1, with the winner taking on the National League champions — either Green Bay or Dallas — in the first Super Bowl game.

Jack Kemp, the Buffalo quarterback who engineered the victory over Denver despite completing only nine of 23 passes for 147 yards, didn't feel the Bills had played as poorly as the statistics would indicate.

"Denver was loose," Kemp pointed out. "They had nothing to lose. They were going all out, blitzing without worrying, coming all the time."

"I think we have a good chance against Kansas City. They're a good team with no particular weaknesses, but I think we are too — and you can say the same for Green Bay and Dallas, too."

Little Trouble
Denver, however, isn't one of the mighty foursome and had no trouble proving it.

The score was 24-7 at the half with Wray Carlton and Jack Spikes scoring on short runs. Booth Lusteg kicking a 16-yard field goal and Bobby Crockett taking a 38-yard pass from Kemp.

But Denver assisted on all four scores, linebacker John Bramlett committing a personal foul on drive No. 1, Bob Scarpit to punting only 16 yards on No. 2, a John McCormick pass falling into Tom Janik's hands on No. 3 and the onside kick attempt winding up in the hands of Paul Maguire on No. 4.

The story was the same in the second half as Janik raced 25 yards for a touchdown after intercepting another McCormick pass and linebacker Mike Stratton lumbered 22 yards for the final touchdown after a fumble by McCormick.

But Kemp knows Kansas City won't act the same way. "They're not going to make any mistakes," he said. "So we won't be able to."

Pee Wee Cagers Split Two Games

St. Mary's Pee Wee No. 1 basketballers trounced St. Peter's of Kingston, 39-10, in the CYO league opener, but dropped a 29-27 squeaker to St. Mary's of Wappingers in overtime in an exhibition game.

Walter Houghtaling was high scorer in both games, with 12 against Wappingers and 9 against St. Peter's.

Results:
St. Mary's No. 1 (39) — W. Houghtaling 9, G. Brooks 4, P. Palladino 2, R. Secreto 2, T. Mahoney 2, T. Ferraro 2, J. Pugliese 2, B. Latour 2, D. Mahoney 6, J. Carter 8, M. Kiernan.

St. Peter's (10) — P. Mercier 2, Schoonmaker, Rodden 2, C. Barton 4, Rathjon 2, Schoonmaker, Gage, R. Guess.

St. Mary's (27) — Houghtaling 12, G. Brooks 4, R. Secreto 9, J. Ferraro, J. Pugliese, B. Latour, D. Mahoney, J. Carter 2, Kiernan.

Wappingers (29) — Miller 2, Murphy 2, Rosenberger 8, Manning 4, Latino 5, Van Vooris 2, Plunkett 6, Yardley, Van Schack.

Public Workout
EL PASO, Tex. (AP) — Wyoming and Florida State planned their only public workouts in El Paso today for the Sun Bowl football clash on Saturday.

Coaches Lloyd Eaton of Wyoming and Bill Peterson of Florida State said the rest of the drills this week will be closed to everyone except newsmen.

While Kingston Sport Club was making the long trip to Spring Valley just to be informed there was no game, the ninth place American Czechs of New York upset the league leading Bridgeport squad, 2-1, Sunday in the German-American Soccer League.

The stunning setback dropped Bridgeport into second place, two points behind Yonkers, 4-2 winners over White Plains.

Sport Club officials said this morning their game at Spring Valley was cancelled because of frozen turf on the playing field.

In Seventh Place Unless there are unexpected changes, the Sunday cancellation completes the 1966 phase of the 1966-67 season and leaves Kingston in a tie for seventh place on 14 points.

In other action yesterday, West New York moved ahead of Kingston with a 2-1 win over Krollman.

JCC Five Now Leads

Kingston Jewish Community Center cagers are perched atop the Mid-Hudson JCC standings with a 2-0 record, following Saturday's 50-40 victory over Poughkeepsie at the J. Watson Bailey school gym.

Approximately 400 fans saw the locals explode for 20 points in the second quarter and go on to an impressive win.

Newburgh squeezed by Monticello, 49-47, in the other game of the doubleheader.

Team balance accounted for the Kingston win, with seven players figuring in the scoring. Alan Kaplan led with 12, Dave Rose hit 11 and Jordan Pauker 10. Gary Gieckle led Poughkeepsie with 16.

Name Robinson Memorial Winner

BALTIMORE (AP) — Brooks Robinson, third baseman for the Baltimore Orioles is the winner of the 12th annual Lou Gehrig Memorial Award, the chairman of the selection committee has announced.

Announcement of the winner was made Sunday by Chads O. Skinner, committee chairman.

"Brooks Robinson is not only a great infielder and a dangerous hitter," said Skinner, but he also "possesses a superb competitive spirit, exceptional physical durability, and personal qualities that make him an exceptional credit to his team and to the game of baseball."

Phi Delta Theta, a national college fraternity that Gehrig joined while a university student, established the award.

Robinson was chosen the most valuable player in the American League in 1964. This year he was beaten only by teammate Frank Robinson in the MVP balloting.

New York Skater Favored to Win

LAKE PLACID, N.Y. (AP)—Taffy Permagent, 17, of New York City, will be among the favorites at the Eastern figure skating championships in Buffalo later this month.

Miss Permagent, who represents the Westchester Figure Skating Club, won the North Atlantic Figure Skating senior ladies title here Saturday night, beating out Honey Kerr of New York City and Jill Osborne of Lake Placid.

About 100 skaters from New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Connecticut, competed in the three-day event, which began last Thursday.

The top three winners in each category will compete at the championships at Buffalo.

Saturday's winners:

Senior ladies—1, Taffy Permagent, New York City; 2, Honey Kerr, New York City; 3, Jill Osborne, Lake Placid, N.Y.

Junior ladies—1, Candice Brown, Summit, N.J.; 2, Ellen Wellington, Berkeley Heights, N.J.; 3, Judy Mothersell, West Orange, N.J.

Red Hot Sayers Set 2 Records In NFL Rushing

CHICAGO (AP) — Roger Sayers and Mrs. Sayers of Omaha, Neb., decided to see their son play a professional football game in the flesh.

Gale Sayers didn't disappoint Mama or Papa Sunday as he flashed the Chicago Bears to a 41-28 victory over the Minnesota Vikings.

Gale was so impressive that Roger Sayers came into the dressing room after the game, extended his hand and said, "Congratulations, son. You played a fine game."

"Thanks, Dad. I hope you enjoyed it."

Both Sayers had reason for enjoying it for the 197 yards the son gained running Sunday gave him a season total of 1,231 and made him the first halfback to win the NFL rushing title since Steve Van Buren of Philadelphia in 1949.

Sayers also set an NFL combined net yardage season record of 2,440 — he totaled 339 Sunday by tacking 142 through kickoff returns and pass receiving onto his 197 rushing.

Tim Brown Record

The old mark of 2,428 was set by Tim Brown of Philadelphia in 1963. Brown also holds the single game mark of 341 set in 1962.

Ninety of Sayers' yards against the Vikings came when he returned the opening kickoff for a touchdown.

If Sayers had one disappointment outside the fact the Bears had a dismal 5-7-2 season, it was his inability to reach 200 yards in a single game.

The Bears got mixed up in their signals in the final seconds, robbing the Kansas Cornet of a final chance to get three more yards and 200 in the game. Nevertheless, Sayers' 197 yards broke the Bears' single game records of 190 yards by Rick Casares and Casares' season record of 1,134 yards both set in 1956.

Two Passing Records For Sonny Jurgensen

WASHINGTON (AP) — Washington quarterback Sonny Jurgensen broke two National Football League season passing records Sunday in the Redskins' 37-28 loss to Philadelphia.

He established records for passes attempted and passes completed.

Jurgensen attempted 436 passes during 1966, breaking the previous mark of 420 set by Baltimore's John Unitas in 1961 and St. Louis' Charley Johnson in 1964.

He also completed 254, snapping the record of 242 set by John Brodie of San Francisco last year.

Lakers Hold Off Boston Rally To Win, 127-125

Boston's second-half best wasn't good enough to offset its first-half worst.

The Celtics spotted Los Angeles a 76-53 halftime lead then came back to tie the game with 11 seconds left in the game before two free throws by Gail Goodrich gave the Lakers a 127-125 National Basketball Association victory in Los Angeles Sunday night.

Boston made up points of the deficit in the third quarter, got 37 points in the final quarter and tied the game on Sam Jones' basket.

Jerry West led the Lakers with 35 points and Elgin Baylor had 31. John Havlicek led the Celtics with 27 points.

Happy Hairston had a career high of 30 points, leading Cincinnati to a 138-114 victory over Baltimore in Cincinnati. Adrian Smith and Connie Dierking each added 21 points for the Royals and LeRoy Ellis led the Bullets with 17.

The fourth-place Royals now are leading the cellar-dwelling Bullets by six games in the Eastern Division and are just a game behind the third-place New York Knicks.

In games played Saturday, Chicago beat Baltimore, 110-106; New York clipped St. Louis 116-114. Philadelphia took Detroit 120-105 at Syracuse and Boston whipped San Francisco 118-110.

Rangers Stunned By Detroit, 5-0

Roger Crozier, still picking out early season splinters, had the first place New York Rangers crying out Sunday night.

The 24-year-old goalie blanked the Rangers 5-0 in Detroit for his second straight shutout that kept the last-place Red Wings within a point of Boston and tumbled the Rangers into a deadlock at the top with Chicago in the National Hockey League.

The Black Hawks, playing on home ice, got by Toronto 3-1 while the Bruins played the rude host by winning for the first time in 11 games, 3-1 over Montreal.

Crozier, a sensation the last two seasons, his first in the NHL, had his problems at the start of this season as the Red Wings dropped to the cellar and he went to the bench.

He spent six games watching from the sidelines before returning and Detroit has won three of four since then. At his acrobatic best Sunday night, he tucked aside 22 shots behind a tight defense as Detroit dominated play in every period with 44 shots.

In Saturday's action, New York turned back Toronto 3-1 and Montreal and Chicago played a 4-4 tie.

Banks Warned About Misleading Ads on Interest

WASHINGTON (AP) — The federal government has clamped advertising standards on banks and savings and loan associations to bar what it called misleading claims on rates of interest paid depositors.

The Federal Reserve Board today described the standards as voluntary but it noted in a letter to state banks which are members of the system that deposit accounts are subject to the antifraud provisions of federal securities laws.

Similar letters were sent to banks and savings and loan associations under their jurisdiction by the comptroller of the currency, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corp., and the Federal Home Loan Bank Board.

The agencies said they regard the four standards they outlined as minimum principles to be followed in advertising for savings.

The standards are:

1. Interest and dividend rates should be stated in terms of annual rates of simple interest with the advertisement listing the basis for compounding. Neither the total percentage return, if held to maturity, nor the average annual rate achieved through compounding should be given unless the simple annual rate is equally prominent.

2. No reference should be made to profit to the investor for use of his money over a specific period of time.
3. If the advertised rate is payable only on deposits of a time period or fixed amount, this should be stated in the ad.
4. No statement should be made implying that more than $15,000 in federal insurance is provided for each depositor.

In his letter to state banks which are members of the Federal Reserve System, Vice Chairman J. L. Robertson said intense competition for savings has prompted "a few institutions" to use advertising practices which could be detrimental to the public and the financial system.

Rocky Assures Prison Officials Of Job Security

Correction Officers will handle supervision and security at Woodbourne Prison if the State uses that institution as a treatment center for narcotics addicts as is now planned.

An AFL-CIO union delegation representing correction officers from prisons throughout the State received assurances Dec. 16 from Alton G. Marshall, Gov. Rockefeller's secretary, that no correction officers would be transferred or lose their jobs in the event Woodbourne is used to treat addicts.

Met in Albany

Thomas Thompson, Leader of Council 50, AFL-CIO, delegation which met with Marshall in Albany, hailed the announcement as a smashing victory for union members as well as for the citizens in areas surrounding Woodbourne. The union delegation also received assurances that correction officers at other affected institutions in the State would not suffer job loss or transfer if their institution is used for dope addict treatment.

Thompson, a correction officer at Napanoch and a member of the union's executive board, said that Marshall's announcement "should help to allay the fears of community residents that dope addicts would be harbored in their midst without the supervision and meaningful security currently provided by Correction Officers."

Others Attending

John Abramschke, president of Council 50 Local 1151 at Woodbourne and a resident of Monticello, also attended the meeting with Marshall, along with Al Wurf, Council 50 Executive Director.

Late last week Wurf threatened to have his union set up picket lines at Woodbourne if there were any moves by the State to transfer or discharge any correction officers at the institution as a result of the plan to treat addicts there.

Recall Pontiacs For Misaligned Steering Columns

DETROIT (AP) — More than 16,000 new cars in three Pontiac lines are being checked for possible misaligned steering shafts, the General Motors Pontiac Division announced today.

Misalignment could cause abnormal stress on the steering shaft, causing it to break if the stress continued over a long period of time, the announcement said.

The division said it was notifying owners of 1967 model Tempest, LeMans and GTO automobiles produced before Oct. 18 at the division's home assembly plant to return the vehicles to dealers for inspection.

The number of cars involved, including those still in dealer inventory, is 16,245, Pontiac said.

The misalignment in some of the cars came about in the assembly line process, which was changed in mid-October, the division said.

The announcement marked the first GM division recall of 1967 model cars. The nation's other three auto makers have already announced recalls to correct suspected flaws in 1967 cars.

2 Persons Hurt In Area Mishaps

Two persons were injured in separate accidents investigated over the weekend by Kingston State Police.

At 12:40 a. m. today, Geoffrey Williams, 32, of Colonial Gardens, was driving south on Route 9W north of the State Police substation, Town of Ulster, when the vehicle hit a divider. Williams was taken to Benedictine Hospital by Doctors Ambulance suffering lacerations of the head and possible fracture of the nose.

Trooper Thomas Searles said Williams was cited for failure to keep to the right and driving a car with unsafe tires.

Kingston troopers reported Anthony Scarcelli, 33, of Glasco, was attempting a turn on Main Street, Glasco, at about 7:30 p. m. Sunday when his car reportedly hit Evelyn Piano, 32, of that community. The injured woman was taken to Benedictine Hospital and treated for shock and possible injuries of the head and hip. Sergeant Donald Paulsen investigated.

Market Has Sharp Drop

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market dropped sharply today in a slump apparently touched off by reports that General Electric Co. 1966 earnings would fall below last year's record level.

At noon, the Dow Jones average of 30 industrial stocks was off 10.69 at 796.49. The average of all common stock traded on the New York Stock Exchange was down 16 cents.

Two Yanks Plead Guilty in Soviet Court on Monday

LENINGRAD, U.S.S.R. (AP) — Two young Americans pleaded guilty at the start of their trial in a Leningrad court today to violating Soviet currency regulations.

Buel Ray Wortham of North Little Rock, Ark., also pleaded guilty to stealing an antique statue of a bear from a Leningrad hotel.

The currency charge against Wortham and Craddock M. Gilmore Jr. of Salt Lake City, Utah, carries a possible prison sentence of three to eight years. The maximum sentence on the theft charge is three years.

Arrested Oct. 1

Wortham, 25, and Gilmore, 24, were arrested Oct. 1 as they were driving to Finland. Gilmore was released Dec. 1 on bail of more than $11,000 but bail was denied Wortham.

The trial is expected to last three days.

This is because Soviet legal procedure requires, regardless of the plea, a round for the prosecution to present its full case, then a round for the defense, after which the judges retire to write their lengthy summation of the whole trial by hand. In trials involving foreigners, the Russians try to display the meticulous nature of their legal system as a defense against any criticism.

The indictment charged that the two men illegally exchanged $35 and 35 Finnish marks for 75 rubles while Gilmore had Wortham change $30 for him for 45 rubles. In effect this meant that the two paid about $75 for rubles worth $132 at the official rate.

The indictment also accused Wortham of taking a statue of a bear from his hotel and trying to remove it from the country in his suitcase.

After the indictment had been translated into English, the woman judge presiding, Nina I. Isakova, asked the defendants how they pleaded.

Wortham, his brow furrowed and a worn look on his face, said: "I plead guilty."

Gilmore, looked fresher as he replied: "I plead guilty but only in the amount of $20."

Students Among

Rhodes Winners

SWARTHMORE, Pa. (AP) —

Seniors at Cornell and Colgate are among the winners of the 32 Rhodes Scholarships awarded to college students from all parts of the United States.

Richard L. Shaper, of Babylon, N.Y., representing Colgate University, was one of those named Sunday by Dr. Courtney Smith, administrative head of the Rhodes Scholarships in the U.S. and president of Swarthmore College.

Kenneth S. Brecher, of Highland Park, Ill., who attends Cornell University, was the other senior with Upstate connections.

In addition to Shaper and Brecher, Edward W. Campion of Brownville, a student at Dartmouth, and Ronald S. Katz of St. Louis, Mo., a student at New York University, were among those named.

Those selected spend two and sometimes three years at Oxford studying in any field offered by the university. The scholarship carries a $2,800-a-year stipend.

All must be ratified by the Rhodes trustees after acceptance by a college at Oxford.

Scholars are selected on the basis of intellect, character, leadership and physical vigor.

Old Issue Threatens Adjournment of U. N.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — A new quarrel over U.N. peacekeeping operations threatened today to delay adjournment of the General Assembly's 22nd session.

The Soviet Union and France warned Saturday night that a new crisis might result if the assembly adopted a Canadian resolution setting guidelines for the special committee on peacekeeping operations. The two countries said the resolution was illegal.

The United States denied that it had bombed the Communist capital. U.S. officials speculated that the Communist ground fire — missiles and anti-aircraft shells — may have fallen on the city. Also there was a possibility U.S. bombs and rockets fell accidentally on nonmilitary targets, as frequently happens in aerial warfare.

Seven Flights Today

The raids last week were five and six miles from the center of Hanoi, spokesmen in Saigon said. The targets were railroad and truck depots, though Communist broadcasts insist the Hanoi Embassy in Hanoi were damaged.

The spokesman said seven flights of U.S. Air Force planes participated today in the Ha Gia fuel storage raid. A flight normally consists of three to five aircraft.

U.S. planes flew 92 strike missions Sunday in southern portions of North Vietnam.

U.S. headquarters in Saigon reported American plane losses over North Vietnam had reached 450. This included four planes not previously announced.

One U.S. spokesman said there had been some downing of sight of the enemy, indicating they had crashed in the Gulf of Tonkin or in Laos.

The spokesman also announced that 144 American planes have been lost in action over South Vietnam.

Other action reported:

— B52 bombers struck twice today at North Vietnamese staging areas and supply points just south of the demilitarized zone in Quang Tri Province. The raids were the third and fourth in the area within two days and apparently were aimed at wrecking a new buildup by infiltrating North Vietnamese troops.

— Seven miles north of the demilitarized zone, the destroyer Maddox intercepted 20 cargo boats, destroyed three and damaged four with five-inch gunfire. The attack was part of the Navy's new Operation Traffic Cop against supplies moving by sea from North to South Vietnam.

— Four U.S. Navy "Swift" boats fought a short, close-range gun duel with an estimated company of Viet Cong ashore in the Mekong Delta Sunday.

Cong Were Waiting

A U.S. spokesman said waiting Viet Cong opened up on the fast Navy patrol craft with automatic weapons, mortars and recoilless rifles at a range of 20 to 30 yards. The Swift boats returned the fire with their 50-caliber machine-guns but broke away after an eight-minute fire fight.

The first units of the 9th U.S. Infantry Division — "The Old Reliables" — came ashore at Vung Tau, 40 miles southeast of Saigon. Westmoreland served with the division in Europe during World War II.

May Go to Delta

The 9th's arrival is expected to release other U.S. troops for deployment in the Mekong Delta, the vast, rice-rich area south of Saigon where the Viet Cong is strong. The delta so far has been manned entirely by Vietnamese troops plus several helicopter pilots and U.S. Navy river craft personnel.

The U.S. military command announced that units of the 101st Airborne Division were engaged in a new operation in the central highlands 24 miles west-northwest of Kontum City near the Laotian border.

The sweep, named Operation Pickett, was launched Dec. 9 but U.S. spokesmen said there was no significant contact.

Over South Vietnam Sunday U.S. pilots flew 468 sorties and claimed destruction or damage of 258 enemy gun positions, sampans, huts, bunkers and fortified positions. South Vietnamese pilots flew 13 combat sorties.

The threat of Viet Cong terrorism caused Roman Catholic chaplains to call off plans for Christmas Eve midnight Masses for U.S. troops. The decision was taken despite a Viet Cong pledge to honor a 49-hour Christmas truce starting at 7 a.m. Dec. 24.

Protestant services are scheduled during the day and early evening and no changes were expected.

Red China Sunday renewed its offer to send troops to help Communists fighting in Vietnam, but a Viet Cong representative indirectly turned the offer down. The offer was made at a Peking rally for Foreign 11 nonaligned countries sought to head off a showdown. One member said the commission wanted Canada to withdraw the resolution. Another said it was trying to work out amendments acceptable to all.

The assembly postponed a vote on the resolution until today. It appeared that this would run the session into Tuesday, the scheduled closing day, and frustrate the hope of Assembly President Abdul Rahman Pazhwak of Afghanistan that he could end it a day ahead of time.

The basic issue was the same as that which paralyzed the General Assembly two years ago: whether the assembly, with its majority rule, shares the constitutional authority of the Security Council with its five-power veto, to arrange for peacekeeping operations. The United States and Britain say it does. The Soviet Union and France say it does not.

Still Refuse to Pay

In 1964, the Soviet Union and France, were two years behind in paying peacekeeping assessments voted by the assembly and the United States threatened to invoke a clause of the U.N. Charter providing that such delinquents should lose their assembly vote. The Americans finally backed down. The Soviets and French still refuse to pay.

Canadian resolution would have the General Assembly invite member countries to inform the United Nations what forces they can provide if asked "to participate in a duly authorized United Nations peacekeeping operation."

French Ambassador Roger Seydoux told the assembly that "beyond the competence of the General Assembly," he said that the authors of the resolution "run the risk of reviving divergences which were about to be settled."

Soviet Ambassador Nikolai T. Fedorenko objected also that the resolution "empowers the General Assembly to finance the operation of United Nations armed forces, which is within the sole competence of the Security Council."

He said its adoption would "shut the door to negotiations" and might "lead to the emergence of situations of crisis."

Both delegates however supported a Jamaican resolution to have the assembly recommend that the Security Council negotiate arrangements with U.N. members for peacekeeping forces to be made available at the council's call.

The special political committee recommended both resolutions Wednesday night. Each got better than the two-thirds majority needed for approval in the assembly.

Diplomatic sources said the Soviet and French diplomats warned privately that if the assembly adopted the Canadian proposal, they would reconsider whether to stay on the peacekeeping committee.

Reopen Tracks

Near Oriskany,

ORISKANY, N.Y. (AP)—New York Central employees have managed to reopen the line's mainline tracks near here, closed late Saturday when 46 cars in a freight train derailed, tearing up 1,000 feet of track.

A railroad spokesman said Sunday night both main line tracks were reopened by late evening and that traffic was returning to normal. One of the tracks was reopened about 3:30 p.m.

The 46 cars were part of a 122-car train moving soft coal from Syracuse to Kingston. A railroad spokesman said the derailment was caused by a broken wheel.

An official damage estimate was not available, but the spokesman said it probably would exceed $500,000.

No one was injured when the cars left the track shortly before midnight Saturday.

About 600 passengers were shuttled between Utica and Syracuse Sunday, while trains were delayed.

In another derailment near Schenectady Saturday night, three cars of a 102-car New York Central train left the tracks and blocked traffic for several hours. Cause of the derailment was not known immediately.

NEW YORK (AP) — Stock market losses deepened early this afternoon following a sharp decline by General Electric which unsettled the list. Trading was moderately active.

The Dow Jones industrial average at noon was down sharply, losing 10.69 to 796.49.

Weakness in GE spread to other blue chips which are influential in the closely watched Dow average.

A weekend statement by GE President Fred J. Borch that the company's 1966 earnings would fall somewhat below last year's record level was linked with the weakness in GE stock.

The GE statement came as a surprise to Wall Street.

Delayed by an accumulation of orders, GE plunged 5 points to 88½ on an opening block of 17,400 shares. It trimmed the loss to around 4 points later.

The market was mixed and cautious up to the GE opening. Then many other stocks declined sympathetically.

The Associated Press average of 43 stocks was off 1.5 at 294.7 with industrials off 4.0, rails off .1 and utilities unchanged.

Westinghouse Electric and United Aircraft, both key stocks, sank more than 2 points each. Influential Du Pont sagged 1½, about the same as Texaco. Eastman Kodak slipped nearly 2.

Airlines were weak. Eastern, Pan American and United fell more than a point each. Xerox and Jones & Laughlin lost more than a point.

Zenith gained a point or more. General Motors held a fractional gain.

Prices were mixed in active trading on the American Stock Exchange.

Liuni Rules Out

would not have that authority. Judge Herzberg had been assigned to rehear a dispute for custody of the child between the Liunis and Ulster County Welfare Commissioner Joseph Fitzsimmons.

Judge Herzberg said in an interview that if all reports were favorable it was possible that he could approve adoption by the Liunis when the custody hearing came up Jan. 9.

Will Probe Background

He said he had informed the couple he would "entertain" their application for an adoption, and that he had appointed a skilled investigator to examine their background.

Fitzsimmons had ruled that the coloring and ethnic background of the Liunis made them unsuitable adoptive parents for the child. He also ruled that they were too old — both are 48. Fitzsimmons, the child's legal guardian who had pleaded her with the Liunis, ordered Beth returned to him last March for adoption elsewhere. The Liunis refused. After a three-day hearing, they were ordered by Family Court Judge Hugh Elwyn to return the child.

The decision was appealed. It was later nullified by the Appellate division, which designated Judge Herzberg to rehear the case.

Cold Period Indicated With Little Snow

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — Extended forecast for Upstate New York, prepared by the U.S. Weather Bureau, from Tuesday through Saturday: Cold weather is indicated, with one or two periods of light precipitation. A little light snow is expected at the beginning, followed by cold weather. A windy period with flurries and snow squalls is anticipated Wednesday night into Friday. High temperatures, will range from the middle 20s to the middle 30s most days. Night time lows will be in the teens and low 20s at the beginning, with one or two nights later in the week from zero to 10 above.

that several weeks ago Congressman Joseph Y. Resnick had demanded the disbarment of the County Attorney and Assistant County Attorney of Ulster County for their conduct in the performance of their duties in the Liuni case; and

"Whereas, the Ulster County Bar Association maintains a standing Committee on Grievances and Ethics for the hearing of all grievances or complaints made against attorneys practicing in said County; and

"Whereas, no communication or complaint has been received against the said attorneys by the officers or the Committee on Grievances and Ethics of the Ulster County Bar Association as of this date;

"Now, therefore, be it resolved, that the Ulster County Bar Association condemns the tactics and procedures employed by Congressman Resnick in using his position as Congressman and the resultant access to the public news media for the making of unsupported and groundless accusations against the County Attorney and Assistant County Attorney, and having made these accusations, depriving the attorneys of their right to be heard, and it is

"Further resolved, that such conduct on the part of Congressman Resnick is contrary to the American Traditions of equal justice, fair play and the basic right of the accused to be confronted by his accuser."

Truman Honors Dr. Salk

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — Dr. Jonas E. Salk was given the 1966 Harry S. Truman commendation award Sunday night for his aid to humanity through discovery of the Salk polio vaccine.

The award, given by the Bonds for Israel Committee, went previously to Gen. Lucius D. Clay and Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey.

Former President Truman, in a letter read at the dinner, expressed hope that another Jonas Salk might soon come forward to free humanity "from the most virulent of all diseases, the disease of war."

ANCIENT WAY TO FIGHT STARVATION

Man and woman use a cloth bag to scoop water to a higher level — their plot of land which is being sown — in India's Bihar State. This ancient method takes up where a modern device, an electric pump a mile away, forces the water to this spot. This is one of the methods with which Eastern India is striving to alleviate starvation in this third consecutive year of drought. (AP Wirephoto) face the salary of the deputy county attorney has been increased from $3,400 in 1966 to $6,000 for 1967 and an additional deputy has been provided for at a salary of $3,400, increasing the county attorney department request from $19,535 in 1966 to $23,375 in the 1967 budget.

One of the departments in which there has been a large increase is the Board of Elections where preparation for Permanent Personal registration will go into effect next year. It has been estimated the inauguration of permanent registration will cost $100,000. The 1967 budget for Board of Elections is estimated at $32,700 for administration over the 1966 amount of $22,690 and the cost of elections will increase from $30,600 in the 1966 budget to $125,710 in the 1967 budget.

Much of this increase is for equipment and supplies and for additional cost of inspectors and help in getting the permanent registration under way. Total personal service cost increases from $600 in 1966 to an estimated $33,200 in the 1967 budget.

Equipment necessary to set up the Permanent Personal Registration is estimated at $38,210 in the 1967 budget, an entirely new item, and printing and office supplies will increase from $29,000 in 1966 to an estimated $51,000 in the 1967 budget.

In the Highway Department the equipment item has been increased from the 1966 amount of $75,000 to $144,000 in the 1967 budget.

The Public Welfare budget for 1967 calls for $4,158,414. The 1966 budget item was $3,056,526.

More for College

The item for Community College in the 1967 budget is $359,096 while in the 1966 budget that item was $218,510. The county has a bonded indebtedness of $2,690,000 and there is a total of $480,000 in notes outstanding.

There is also indebtedness authorized and unused amounting to $700,000. This includes a serial bond of $100,000 for court house renovation; two serial bonds for construction of the Ulster County Community College at Stone Ridge in the sum of $550,000 and a capital note of $50,000 for construction of the Emergency Operating Center.

Restore Teener's Leg

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP) — A youth's leg was severed in a traffic accident Sunday night, and surgeons sewed it back on. Edward Cissell, 17, lost his left leg below the knee. He was in a car that crashed into a pole in North St. Louis, police said.

The car driver, Theodore Adams, 17, suffered multiple head and body injuries and was in critical condition. A spokesman at Homer G. Phillips Hospital said Cissell was in satisfactory condition after his leg was restored.

Think St. Louis Bomb Was Meant To Blow Up Plane

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP) — A homemade bomb that exploded in the terminal building of Lambert-St. Louis Municipal Airport Saturday night probably was designed to destroy an airplane, a St. Louis County detective said Sunday.

"We're pretty certain someone was going to put it on a plane and then chickened out," said detective Hugh Hodges.

James Williams, a custodian, found the bomb — four sticks of dynamite wired to two batteries and an alarm clock — near the Ozark Airlines counter under a row of seats.

More than 1,000 persons were evacuated within 10 minutes and passengers on incoming flights were told to remain aboard their planes.

No one was injured when the device exploded, shattering seven large window panes, destroying a display case and several chairs.

Maj. F. J. Vasek said his detectives and the FBI were told there had been two previous bomb threats at the airport last week.

Castro Accuses U. S. of Bombing Raids on Hanoi

HAVANA (AP) — Prime Minister Fidel Castro declared Sunday night that Communists in Vietnam are showing the world that it is possible to resist and conquer "imperialist aggression."

Addressing a graduating class of 425 agricultural and ranching technicians at Havana University, Castro said, "Few small countries like ours, also threatened only 90 miles away by the imperialist monster, can appreciate the extent of the Vietnam example."

He accused the United States of intensifying the Vietnam war by bombing residential areas of Hanoi, a charge repeatedly denied by U.S. officials in Washington and Saigon.

"Our own embassy located in the center of Hanoi informed us that only a few hundred meters from the embassy bombs fell from capitalistic planes," he said.

Asks 'Full Parity' For Farm Workers

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — Farm workers "are the most exploited members of our labor force," Raymond R. Corbett, president of the state AFL-CIO, said today.

Corbett called for state legislation to give farm workers "full parity" in the areas of wages, working conditions, benefits, legal protection and union organization.

His statement was prepared for delivery at a hearing by the Joint Legislative Committee on Migrant Labor.
